METHODS OF INVOLVEMENT IN RACEHORSE OWNERSHIP

1) RACEHORSE SYNDICATES OR MULTIPLE OWNERSHIPS:

Owning a percentage of one or more racehorses. Advantages include lesser expense while still having access to barn area, a pass to races, excitement of the paddock and races (winner's circle, etc.).

2) CLAIMING:

Immediate entry into the game. You need a trainer lined up in advance, as well as money in the track's horsemen's account and an owner's license in effect. Negatives involve not knowing the condition, soundness, etc. of the horse.

3) PRIVATE PURCHASE:

May cost more at inception, but you get to vet the horse and watch him train before purchase.

4) INDIVIDUAL OWNERSHIP:

a) Interview trainer candidates

(i) Ask about costs and charges

(ii) Check referrals and record of training accomplishments

(iii) Do your personalities mix well?

b) You are responsible for 100% of the costs. Don't get involved if you can't handle the expense!

5) YEARLING SALE or PUBLIC AUCTION:

The WTBOA Summer Yearling and Mixed Sale is scheduled for Tuesday, August 18, 2020, at the WTBOA's M. J. Alhadeff Sales Pavilion at Emerald Downs. It is important to get good advice when choosing racing prospects. Bloodstock agents or trainers can be beneficial. As in selecting a trainer, inquire about experience and expertise of the agent. The usual charge is 5% of purchase price. This expense can save you a lot of money in the long run.

6) BREEDING YOUR OWN:

Acquiring a broodmare at auction or privately and racing the resultant foals can be exciting and gratifying, but it is a longer process. Several auctions offer you the opportunity to purchase a pregnant mare.

ARE THERE ADVANTAGES TO HAVING A WASHINGTON-BRED RACEHORSE?

Absolutely! Washington-bred Owners' Bonuses and Breeders' Awards can add as much as 25% to your earnings. These are paid after the race meet concludes and do not have to be shared with jockeys and trainers. The WTBOA also now offers a $1,000 WTBOA Homebred Incentive Bonus when a Washington-bred breaks its maiden as a two- or three-year-old (certain conditions apply).

For more information, contact the WTBOA (253-288-7878) or WHPBA (253-804-6822).

The fun and excitement of racehorse ownership awaits you!
You will have the time of your life!
