How We Roll # stable was certainly “on a roll” last year with six stakes wins between their two Emerald Downs champions and now a Washington horse of the year plaque to share among its six amicable partners: David Israel, Joe Withee, Al Adams, Charlie Clark, Angela Wilson and Steve Pilgrim.

Originally signed for by Adams for $20,000 at the 2016 WTBOA Summer Sale, Sippin Fire has already earned more than eight-times his purchase price. His record and those of his champion full brothers Del Rio Harbor and Couldabenthewhisky were certainly factors in their yearling full brother’s sale-topping $85,000 price at the 2018 Washington sale. That colt has been aptly given the name “Brothers.” They are among the nine foals that have been produced by Pam and Neal Christopherson and Melodie Bultena and Doak Walker’s 2015 Washington broodmare of the year Bahati, who foaled a filly by Harbor the Gold in 2018.

Sippin Fire only made four starts as a two-year-old before injury put him back on Israel’s Osceola Thoroughbred Farm in Enumclaw. But his time at the track was well spent. After winning a July maiden special weight race at Emerald Downs in his initial foray, Sippin Fire finished second to eventual state champion (and paternal half-brother) Elliott Bay in the WTBOA Lads Stakes and then defeated that rival by 5 1/2 lengths in the Washington Cup Juvenile Colts and Geldings Stakes.

It’s a shame Sippin Fire never had the chance to emulate his champion brothers with a win in the Gottstein Futurity and give his dam Bahati a chance to become the only mare to produce three winners of the pivotal juvenile stakes. (Bahati is one of four mares to produce two Washington/Gottstein Futurity winners in the race’s 81 renditions, joining Half Saint, Campus Queen and Highly Favored, the latter two who were also named Washington broodmare of the year.)

After starting his 2018 campaign with a mid-pack finish in the six-furlong Auburn Stakes (beaten by 2 1/2 lengths) Sippin Fire reeled off four consecutive stakes wins: the 6 1/2-furlong Coca-Cola Stakes, by 3 1/4 lengths; the 1 1/16-mile Seattle Slew Stakes, by John and Janene Maryanski's Bella Mia is one of two repeat Washington champions (and one of three 2018 state champions) raced by the Auburn couple) lauded in 2018.

In 2017 Bella Mia had won four of her five starts by a combined 16 1/4 lengths, including taking all three of the juvenile filly stakes offered at Emerald Downs en route to being named champion two-year-old distaffer.

Her 2018 debut came in the six-panel Seattle Stakes where she finished second to Ima Happy Cat in the May race. Three weeks later Bella Mia earned her fourth stakes victory in the 6 1/2-furlong Kent Stakes in which she defeated Ima Happy Cat by 2 1/4 lengths. Bella Mia next ran second, beaten a length, in the 1 1/16-mile Irish Day Stakes on July 1 and finished off her Emerald campaign with a third place finish in the nine-panel Washington Oaks three weeks later.

One of a trio of 2018 Washington champions sired by Harbor the Gold, Bella Mia is the fourth foal and second winner produced out of stakes-placed Bella Campana, a daughter of 2002-05 leading Washington sire Slewdledo. The Harbor the Gold/Slewdledo cross is also responsible for state champions Hollywood Harbor and California Gold (in California). Bella Campana, who finished second to her paternal half-sister and two-time Washington champion Ladyledue in the Northwest Stallion Knights Choice Stakes, was also raced by Maryanskis before retiring to the broodmare band of her breeders' Griffin Place.

Bella Mia's older half-sister My Palmilla won a maiden special weight race at Del Mar in her first start and later added a 5 1/2-length tally in an allowance/$20,000 optional claiming (N) race at Santa Anita en route to the Tribal Rule mare's nearly $110,000 in earnings and 1.84 SSI.

Bella Campana is also the dam of a 2016 unnamed filly by Haynesfield, a 2017 unnamed colt by Ministers Wild Cat and produced a colt by Abraaj in 2018.

Bella Mia's second dam Campanita (now 20), a Turf Paradise maiden special weight winner sired by seven-time leading Washington sire and Queen's Plate (Can-G1) winner Son of Briartic,

2018 1st Muckleshoot Tribal Classic S.-R. (EmD) ($50,000g)

1st Pete Pedersen Overnight S. (EmD) ($25,000g)

Unraced at two, Hit the Beach finished third in an Emerald Downs maiden special weight race in his only start at three. At four he was runner-up in two $25,000 maiden claiming races while still running for Elttaa's Stable and his breeder Jeff Harwood before being claimed by Ed Zenker, H. R. "Pat" Mullens and Richard Larson in his May 6 outing.

In his first start for his new owners Hit the Beach ran second in a maiden special weight and next won at that same level. He made four more starts in 2017, running second and third in allowance/$40,000 optional claiming (N) races before finishing the year with fifth place efforts in both the Pete Pedersen Stakes and Muckleshoot Tribal Classic. He would more than amend for those losses in 2018.

Hit the Beach's five-year-old campaign began with a win in an Emerald $25,000 optional claiming race (N) on May 13. After finishing in the money, but out of the top three placements in next trio of outings, the dark bay gelding was dropped into a $25,000 claimer, which he won by nearly two lengths. That victory was followed by a third place finish, beaten a length by 2018 Portland Mile Handicap winner Grinder Sparksaglo, in another allowance/$40,000 optional claiming (N) race.

The Pat Mullens (who was acknowledged with a 2018 special racetrack achievement award) trainee's next appearances came in the two stakes that had thwarted him the previous year, but not so for 2018, as Hit the Beach drew clear for a 3 1/4-length tally in the 76th running of the Muckleshoot (formerly Washington) Championship and added a 1 3/4-length "hit" in the race honoring late racing steward legend and Washington native Pete Pedersen.

Hit the Beach follows his stakes-winning full brother Daytona Beach as the second stakes winner produced out of 13-race winner and two-time stakes winner Hit a Star. Daytona Beach, who placed last year at age six, has won a dozen races, including the NWSS Cahill Road Stakes at two. Hit a Star is also the dam of 2018 winner Bikini Beach, also sired by Harbor the Gold; 2018 placed two-year-old Mayz's Music, a daughter of Harbor the Gold's Washington champion son Music of My Soul; the 2017 Abraaj colt Reddy to Star; and had a filly by Noosito (a champion full brother to Music of My Soul) in 2018 who has been granted the name Noosita. Doris Harwood, who co-bred Hit the Beach, conditioned the full brothers as well as their dam Hit a Star.

Hit the Beach also earned the Harwoods an engraved mint julep cup offered by the Daily Racing Form to the breeders of the Washington-bred runner with the highest winning Beyer speed figure (90) in 2018.

Even the misspelling of her name seems appropriate for this talented mare as she is a daughter of top New York sire Freud.

Bred by Debbie and Rick Pabst, Psycho Sister is the second state champion produced by her stakes-winning dam, Melba Jewel, following 2017 champion two-year-old Elliott Bay.

Pyscho Sister was purchased for $26,000 by Victor Bahna Jr. from the Pabsts' Blue Ribbon Farm consignment at the 2014 WTBOA Summer Yearling Sale.

Unraced at two, she began her racing career the following year at Emerald Downs with a trio of thirds in maiden special weight races before being sent to Golden Gate Fields where she went gate-to-wire to take a mile turf maiden special weight by 5 1/2 lengths and later added a four-length allowance tally at 1 1/16 miles.

After only placing once in her eight starts at four, Pyscho Sister was dropped into a $32,000 claiming race on January 18, 2018, where she caught the eye of Scott Herbertson and his son, trainer Ari Herbertson, who claimed the mare out of her second place effort.

In her first outing for her new owners, Pyscho Sister went gate-to-wire to take a $62,500 optional claiming race at a mile at Golden Gate by nearly three lengths. She next ran third, beaten only a head and nose, in a race under the same conditions, though this time she wasn't made available to claim.

After a mile turf allowance score in her next outing, the Herbertsons took a gamble and shipped Pyscho Sister to Churchill Downs to run in the Grade 2 Churchill Distaff Turf Mile on the Kentucky Derby undercard. After setting the early pace, the Washington-bred distaff gave way to finish tenth on the stormy and very wet day.

After an off the board finish while going 6 1/2 furlongs in an allowance/$62,500 claiming race over Santa Anita's downhill turf course, Pyscho Sister's connections opted to give her a two-month breather, after which she just missed in her first start back in the $50,000 Luther Burbank Stakes, a 1 1/16-mile turf race at Santa Rosa run August 4.

Pyscho Sister then returned to her favorite Northern California track where she rolled to two mile turf wins. After one more failed attempt in graded company, Pyscho Sister ended her race career on a high note with a December win in Golden Gate's Miss America Stakes.

Pyscho Sister is currently residing in Kentucky while being bred to Tapizar and will be returned to California to foal.

Forty years ago, when Jerre Paxton was in the process of building his Yakima farm and broodmare band, he purchased a daughter of 1971 Horse of the Year Ack Ack out of the winning *Grey Dawn II mare Mostly for $29,500 from the CTBA Two-year-olds in Training Sale at Hollywood Park. While Skysweeper did very little at the races to refund her purchase price (from four maiden special weight starts as a three-year-old at Bay Meadows her best finish was a fourth and she earned a lowly $1,112), she more than made up for it in her second career as a broodmare.

She was bred to Paxton's young Never Bend stallion Drum Fire for her first two foals. The first, the colt Propulsion, was a $32,000 WTBA yearling and a $120,000 CTBA March Two-year-old Sale graduate, but failed to win in three starts. He was followed in 1983 by a filly that would live up to her name: Firesweeper, a multiple Washington champion who would win 13 stakes races at Longacres and Santa Anita. Six years later Skysweeper produced her second champion in Serenity Road, a son of Drum Fire's champion son Knights Choice.

Among Skysweeper's later foals was the unraced Al Mamoon mare Nightatmisskittys, who Paxton, under his Northwest Farms banner, consigned bred to Skywalker to the 1997 WTBA Winter Mixed Sale where Charlie Dunn purchased the then six-year-old mare for $16,000. Nightatmisskittys would produce two champions for Dunn's Dunn Bar Ranch LLC and be named 2007 Washington broodmare of the year.

One of those champions is 2007 champion three-year-old filly No Constraints, who followed her dam and granddam by producing two state champions: 2016 champion three-year-old filly Invested Prospect and 2017 champion older filly or mare Citizen Kitty.

Invested Prospect added further glitz to the family tree after being named 2018 champion sprinter. The speedy daughter earned her title after a win in the six-panel Hastings Stakes in 1:08.69 and a third in the 6 1/2-furlong Washington State Legislators Stakes.

Invested Prospect is one of two 2018 Washington champions for her Grade 2 Saratoga sprint-winning sire Abraaj, the other being two-year-old filly Money Inthe Stars.

Baja Sur went from being the sale topper at the 2017 WTBOA August sale to being named champion two-year-old after two impressive races last season at Emerald Downs.

John and Janene Maryanski and the Riverbend Farm of Gerry and Gail Schneider's handsome bay made his debut on June 17 in a five-panel maiden special weight race. After taking command early, Baja Sur – at four-to-one odds – was never headed and drew away with a handy 5 1/4-length victory.

Four weeks later Baja Sur led a field of five juvenile males to the gate for the 5 1/2-furlong King Country Express Stakes. Going off as the two-to-five top choice, he once again led from gate-to-wire, but this time doubled his winning margin to 10 1/2 lengths as “the easiest of winners.”

Baja Sur was bred by Yakima horseman John Roche, whose first acquaintance to this female family came in December 1985 when he purchased a Washington-bred yearling daughter of Staff Writer for $4,200 out of the WTBOA Winter Mixed Sale. Christened Soft Copy, she won seven stakes and placed in nine others – including two graded events – and was retired with $313,153 in earnings and the title of 1987 Washington champion three-year-old filly.

Soft Copy and her two stakes-winning daughters have so far produced five stakes winners and two stakes-placed runners in Roche's name.

Baja Sur is from the second crop of Grade 1 winner and top national sprinter Smiling Tiger. The $1,480,704 earner, a son of French Group 1-winning Storm Cat stallion Hold That Tiger, stands at Harris Farms in California where his 2019 fee is $6,500.

Smiling Tiger was bred by Oregonian Dr. Rodney Orr and the runner is one of a trio of stakes winners Orr has bred out of his Emerald Downs stakes winner Shandra Smiles, which also includes Eclipse Award winner She's a Tiger.

Smiling Tiger was California's 2017 leading freshman sire and in 2018 broke the earnings record for a California second crop stallion. In addition to Baja Sur, he is the sire of California stakes winners Spiced Perfection (Grade 1), Cruel Intention and Naughty Heir, additional Emerald Downs stakes winner Ima Happy Cat, Portland Meadows stakes winners Grinning Tiger (2017-18 Oregon champion) and 2018 Oregon champion Sari's Tiger (bred and owned by Orr) and four stakes-placed runners.

Hold That Tiger also has a close connection to the Pacific Northwest as Washington horseman David Mowat's Ten Broeck Farm Inc. bred him and his Belmont Stakes (G1) winning half-brother Editor's Note.

One of a tandem of 2018 juvenile stakes winners bred from Connie Belshay's two-mare Only Me Thoroughbreds broodmare band (and the third juvenile stakes winner in two years from the Graham-based breeder), champion Money Inthe Starrs also helped earn special recognition for Belshay at the 2018 Washington annual awards celebration.

In addition to her first champion, Belshay also bred This Great Nation (2018 WTBOA Lads Stakes) and Squeeze Me (2017 Arizona Open Spring Futurity), both offspring of her young Pioneer of the Nile mare Great Mom.

Money Inthe Starrs was picked out by trainer Michael Puhich for $6,200 for the account of Mark Dedomenico from Belshay's consignment with Blue Ribbon Farm at the 2017 WTBOA Summer Yearling Sale.

After her early training at Dedomenico's Pegasus Training and Rehabilitation in Redmond, Money Inthe Starrs made her debut in a $25,000 maiden claiming race on June 16 where she finished third to Sunshine Emily and eventual Portland Meadows stakes winner (and 2018 Oregon champion juvenile filly) Sari's Tiger.

Two weeks later Money Inthe Starrs was back in action, but had been moved up to the maiden special weight company where she went gate-to-wire to take the five-panel race, repelling the advance of future Gottstein Futurity winner Northwest Factor by 1 1/4 lengths.

After pressing the early pace Money Inthe Starrs faded to fifth in the six-furlong Barbara Shinpoch Stakes on August 12, but came back on September 2, as the odds-on choice, to take the Washington Cup Juvenile Filly Stakes by nearly two lengths. Money Inthe Starrs' half-sister, San Juan Star, had run third in same WA Cup race in 2016.

Money Inthe Starrs is the fourth foal and filly out of 11-race winner Our Monstarr, who produced a colt by Grazen in 2018.

Our Monstarr, a 2001 filly by Demons Begone, was bred in Washington by Debbie and Rick Pabst. The $76,520 earner had won her first outing at Emerald Downs as a two-year-old and finished third in the Knights Choice Stakes and fourth in the Angie C. Stakes. She also took six other trips to the Auburn track's winner's circle and was a four-time winner at Turf Paradise.

Star Jasmine, the third dam of Money Inthe Starrs, produced two stakes winners and two stakes-placed runners for the Pabsts' Blue Ribbon Farm, including Our Monstarrs' stakes-placed dam Bravest Star.

Money Inthe Starrs is one of two 2018 champion distaffers for El Dorado Farms' stallion Abraaj, joining multiple Washington champion Invested Prospect. The now 16-year-old son of Carson City led all Washington sires in number of stakes winners last year with four.

Desert Party—And One for Me, by Dayjur

Not many runners win half of their starts in any given year, but to have eight victories in a single season is truly exceptional.

Bred by Barbara Ratcliff's Coal Creek Farm, Party for One is another of the top runners that has stemmed from the Ratcliff family's Temperance Hill mare Katherine Jean.

Party for One is a son of Coal Creek Farm-bred twin And One for Me, whose sister One for You is the dam of Ratcliff's 2018 stakes winner Dedicated to You and granddam of her Washington champion filly My Heart Goes On.

His sire, Desert Party, is a multiple graded stakes-winning son of Street Cry (Ire) who currently stands in New York for a $3,000 fee.

Party for One made his first 18 starts for Coal Creek before being taken out of a $7,500 claimer at Emerald Downs in June 2017. His next 16 starts would come for Matt Hughes and trainer Rigoberto Velasquez, who lost him for a $2,500 claim to John Parker on July 8, 2018. Party for One made only one start for the Lakebay businessman, who owned him for just one week, but it was a winning effort. Velasquez reclaimed him for $2,500 out of that July 15 win for Pam Tumminello and Jerry Carmody.

In his final ten starts in 2018, Party for One won four more races, while running for a $2,500-to-$5,000 tag.

Prior to his 2018 season Party for One had won only one race in 28 starts, but in 2018, seven of his eight wins came while under Velasquez's care.

Party for One added his tenth win on January 21, 2019.

English pleasure, equitation, halter and Western – earned a personal best 5,300 points, the top record of the 13 Washington-bred TIP performers in 2016. In 2016, the duo had recorded 2,847 points and in 2017 led with 1,293 points.

Finishing second, as they had in 2016, was junior rider Megan Farnsworth and her Kactus Revelation (2006, Katowice–Wanfastprincess, by Wander Kind) with 1,739 points earned in the same competitive fields Klein and Back to Wine had excelled in.

Best Hoff, ridden by rider Kaisa Cannon, was ranked third with 781 points. The 2003 gelding by Peterhof—Bestoftheprairie, by Captain Courageous, had been a repeat Grand Champion at the Ride for the Roses Thoroughbred and Half-Thoroughbred Show held at Donida Farms Equestrian Center last October.

All three of the top-ranked horses compete under the same name as they were registered by The Jockey Club.

Also competing for TIP awards last year were (in order of finish): Tiz I Is (Kodiak), by Cee's Tizzy; Poet Aureate, by Liberty Gold; Lucky Tiger, by Rallying Cry; Sharper Eagle, by Flying With Eagles; Bucky B Lucky (under show name Lorenzo), by Kentucky Lucky; Steele Smart, by Commandperformance; Ourshanghaexpress (Murcielago), by Sam's Ace; Brian's Honor (Out N About), by Gallant Best; The French Cage (Capilano), by Uncaged (The French Cage is a half-brother to 1994 Emerald [Longacres] Mile [G3] winner Want a Winner); and Lustre's Image (Illustrious), by Codys Key.

All of the 2018 competitors are based in Washington, except Reno, Nevada-based Murcielago and Glen Garden, New Jersey-based Out N About. Kate Sharkey, of Snoqualmie, competes aboard both Lucky Tiger and Steele Smart.

1st WA Cup Filly and Mare S.-R (EmD) ($50,000)

3rd Fan Appreciation Day Overnight S. (EmD) ($25,000)

Todd and Shawn Hansen's homebred Fly Far Away, a daughter of UAE champion and Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) winner Pleasantly Perfect, is the seventh foal out of the Hansen-raced $116,444 earner Maytown Misstree.

After winning her second start at two, a $12,500 maiden claimer in September at Emerald Downs, by 7 1/4 lengths, Fly Far Away didn't return to the races until the following August when she finished second in a $15,000 claiming race and then ran fourth in the Washington Cup Three-year-old Filly Stakes.

At four, the lightly-raced filly started her 2017 campaign with two fourths and a second at Emerald before being sent to Southern California where she made a trio of starts with her best finish being a third place in a $20,000 claimer at Del Mar in November. While in California, she also made two unsuccessful attempts at turf racing.

Fly Far Away opened her 2018 season early with a second and a fifth at the $25,000 level at Santa Anita before rejoining Blaine Wright's barn at Emerald Downs. In her six starts at the Auburn oval she ran consistently with three wins, one second and two thirds. She won for a $25,000 tag in May, just missed while running for $32,000 in June (third by a neck), took another $25,000 claimer in July and then barely missed again (second by a head) while running in a $40,000 waver claiming race in August.

In September, Fly Far Away won the 1 1/16-mile Washington Cup Filly and Mare Stakes by 1 1/4 lengths and returned two weeks later to run third in the mile Fan Appreciation Day Stakes.

Four of the first dams of the seven 2018 Washington champion titleholders have produced previous state champions, with six of those mares being either a stakes winner or stakes-placed themselves. There are also six of those prominent producers who have additional champions under their first two dams. Baja Sur's dam Premo Copy fits into all three categories, and in 2018, became the third of those first dams to gain Washington broodmare of the year honors.

Premo Copy raced for her breeder John Roche and she was trained throughout her 27-race career by the late Washington Hall of Fame trainer Bud Klokstad.

Premo Copy began her racing career at Emerald Downs where she won the John and Kitty Fletcher Stakes and had strong seconds in both the Irish Day Handicap and Washington Breeders' Cup Oaks.

Premo Copy is a daughter of the exceptional Washington-bred racemare Soft Copy, who had been purchased by Roche as a yearling at the 1985 WTBOA Winter Mixed Sale.

After two stakes wins and being graded stakes-placed at Del Mar at two, in most any other year Soft Copy would have had a good chance of gaining a state championship title for her efforts, but it was her lot to be foaled in the same crop as juvenile Grade 1 winner and Washington horse of the year Delicate Vine.

At three, Soft Copy came back to run even stronger. In her 11 starts she took five stakes wins, led by a victory in the $100,000 Bay Meadows Oaks and was runner-up in four additional added-money events, including the California Jockey Club Handicap (G3). She was deservedly named Washington champion three-year-old filly. But that was far from the end of her stellar career as she came back at five to add four more stakes placements, including a victory in Longacres' Fashion Handicap.

Premo Copy's fourth dam was Mysterious East, a full sister to Horse of the Year and once-beaten Native Dancer, whose strong influence is still felt today. Mysterious East's daughter Ancient Prophecy, a daughter of Dark Star – the horse that had beaten Native Dancer in the Kentucky Derby – came to Washington in 1967 carrying her first foal. Among her six winners were Premo Copy's stakes-placed granddam Castinette.

ATTA BOY ROY

El Dorado Farms Sire of the Year

2005, Tribunal—Irish Toast, by Synastry

Stands property of Atta Boy Roy Syndicate at Blue Ribbon Farm

Cheri Wickland

Not since Knights Choice (in 1991) has a Washington-bred champion runner also excelled at the top of the state sire standings.

Atta Boy Roy, a three-time state champion and Grade 2 stakes winner at Churchill Downs, started his sire career with a bang as Washington's top freshman sire in 2016. He also was the leading second crop sire in 2017, as well as ranking second on the general sire list that year.

Bred by Debbie and Rick Pabst and Patricia Murphy from 2009 Washington broodmare of the year Irish Toast – who also produced 2007 Washington horse of the year and Longacres Mile (G3) winner The Great Face – Atta Boy Roy won or placed in ten stakes for Roy and Ellie Schaefer's R. E. V. Racing.

Atta Boy Roy was one of a dozen stakes winners – led by five champions, including Canadian champion sprint female Tribal Belle – sired by Grade 1-placed Tribunal. A son of champion and leading sire Deputy Minister, Tribunal had been Washington's leading freshman sire of 2006 and was the state's leading juvenile sire of 2009, the same year he ranked second on the general sire list. Industry members were all saddened when injury took the stallion's life at age 11, after leaving only five crops.

Atta Boy Roy retired to stud at the Pabsts' Blue Ribbon Farm in Buckley in 2013. His first crop included three stakes fillies led by 2016-17 Washington champion Risque's Legacy. From his second crop came Mr. Jagermeister, who won the Northern Lights Futurity at two and then added four more Canterbury Park stakes races last year, and stakes-placed Faith Flies Again.

Minnesota-bred Mr. Jagermeister, who ran third in the $75,000 Phoenix Gold Cup on February 9, is Atta Boy Roy's leading earner at $316,475. He accumulated $205,975 of Atta Boy Roy's $481,220 progeny earnings in 2018. The bay colt, who has won seven of his 13 starts by a combined 58 3/4 lengths, was named Canterbury Park's 2018 horse of the meet, champion three-year-old and champion sprinter.

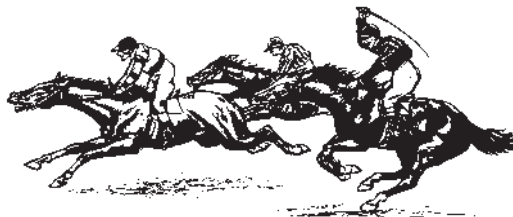

Atta Boy Roy also had two stakes-placed two-year-old fillies, She Flies Forever and So Figure It Out, among his 32 starters last year, with half of those starters returning to the winner's circle.

Atta Boy Roy ranked third on the 2018 Washington juvenile sire list, which was topped by the late He's Tops with Atta Boy Roy's stablemate Nationhood in second place. Kentucky-bred Summerland was He's Tops leading earner after winning five of her six starts, including three stakes wins. The $118,684 earner was named open division two-year-old champion filly at the British Columbia Thoroughbreds award dinner. He's Tops, who stood his entire career at Woodstead Farm, also ranked fifth on the general sire list with $259,324.

Council Member, a stakes-winning son of Seattle Slew, ranked second on Washington's general sire listing with $364,603 being earned by his 22 starters. Council Member's lone stakes winner among his ten winners last year was City of Roses Handicap winner Camano Comet. All of Council Member's 2018 progeny earnings came from out-of-state bred runners, as the 17-year-old stallion moved from California to Dreamstar Farm in Eastern Washington in 2015.

El Dorado Farms LLC's Abraaj finished third in the general rankings. The 2003 son of Carson City had 18 winners among his 23 starters with $327,379 in year-end earnings. Abraaj was the leading state sire by number of stakes winners with four: Carson's Fireball, Four Times Lucky, Invested Prospect and Money Inthe Starrs. Both Invested Prospect (sprinter) and Money Inthe Starrs (two-year-old filly) were named Washington champions and the latter's $39,440 earnings helped place Abraaj fourth on the juvenile sire listing.

2011-17 Washington leading sire Parker's Storm Cat ranked fourth on the general list at $296,585 and led the state in winners with 21.

SCOTT HERBERTSON

NTRA Leading Owner

Although Scott Herbertson became an early fan of horse racing after making many trips with his mother to the track as a youngster, the San Ramon, California, resident didn't develop his own racing stable until 2015.

According to Herbertson, he usually keeps a stable of 20 to 30 horses, but currently, due to claims and injuries, his 2019 barn consists of a dozen runners, most of which are trained by his son Ari Herbertson.

When asked what drew him to claim Pyscho Sister – who he calls a “real sweet and special horse” – out her first race last year, the elder Herbertson stated that he had “admired her nice turn of foot on the grass” and felt that by taking her blinkers off, it might help her. After making that change and teaching her to relax and settle she proved to be a bargain claim at $32,000.

Through February 28, 2019, horses solely raced by Herbertson have made 307 starts with a 87-69-43 record and $1,425,111 in cumulative earnings. His leading earner in 2018 was Pyscho Sister, who contributed $122,070 to his $640,938 total. Among his other successful runners are 2018 Oak Tree Sprint Stakes winner Annie's Candy, 2017 Albany Stakes winner Krsto Skye, stakes winner Noble Nick and multiple stakes-placed Cartoonist.

Herbertson also has had graded success with Bucchero, in whom he was the majority partner. The son of Kantharos won the Grade 2 Woodford Stakes in both 2017 and 2018 and finished fifth in the 2018 King's Stand Stakes (G1) at Royal Ascot. The nearly million dollar earner ran eighth in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (G1) in November, a race he had finished fourth in the year prior. He entered stud in 2019 at Pleasant Acres Stallions in Florida for a $5,000 fee.

How We Roll #4, a partnership made up of David Israel, Joe Withee, Al Adams, Charlie Clark, Angela Wilson and Steve Pilgrim, ranked second in Washington-bred monies with $115,425 earned due to the exploits of their talented horse of the year Sippin Fire and his four stakes tallies.

Finishing in third with $96,675 was Roy and Ellie Schaefer's R. E. V. Racing whose leading earner was their multiple champion Mach One Rules, who while only being stakes-placed in 2018, added $44,150 to their total.

The successful partnership of John and Jane Maryanski and Gerald and Gail Schneider raced two state champions in 2018: champion sprinter Invested Prospect, who was their leading earner at $36,695; and unbeaten champion two-year-old Baja Sur, who contributed $34,650 to their $96,583 total. The Maryanskis also solely raced champion sophomore filly Bella Mia, who earned an additional $54,350.

Rounding out the top five were Todd and Shawn Hansen, whose runners accumulated $90,693, led by their homebred stakes winner and 2018 Washington most improved plater Fly Far Away's $57,045.

MR. and MRS. FREDERICK L. PABST

Daily Racing Form Leading Breeders

Prominent and longtime industry members Rick and Debbie Pabst earned their fifth title as the state's leading breeders in 2018 after the horses they bred earned $385,845. The Buckley couple and their Blue Ribbon Farm also topped all Washington breeders in 2011-14. Since 1979 the Pabsts have appeared on the top 50 breeders' list 38 times. In 2018 their 24 starters won 31 races.

Their leading earner in 2018 was Washington champion older filly or mare Pyscho Sister, who was also Washington's top statebred earner of the year with a $126,870 bankroll. Pyscho Sister follows her younger half-brother Elliott Bay (Washington's champion two-year-old in 2017 and stakes-placed in 2018) as the eighth state champion either bred or co-bred by the Pabsts, which also includes three-time champion and 2018 leading Washington sire Atta Boy Roy.

Other 2018 stakes horses among the Pabsts-bred runners were: Spot On, by Nationhood, and So Figure It Out and Time 'n Time Again, both offspring of Atta Boy Roy.

Pam and Neal Christopherson's Bar C Racing Stables Inc. ranked second with $338,527, in a spot they also held in 2017. Among their 2018 stakes horses were: Mach One Rules and three juvenile runners, stakes winners Dr John H and Fuzzy Dolphin and stakes-placed Reno Roy. All four runners were sired by their home stallion Harbor the Gold, as was their leading 2018 earner Rio Norte, who earned his $56,456 while racing at Oaklawn Park and Woodbine. The Hermiston, Oregon, couple, who were Washington's leaders in 2015-16, foal the majority of their mares at friends and partners' Melodie Bultena and Doak Walker's Desert Rose Racing farm outside of Kennewick, which is minutes away from Hermiston. The Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington couples have bred several top runners in partnership, including 2018 horse of the year Sippin Fire, whose $115,425 of their $131,847 total helped place the partners in the number seven spot in 2018.

Four-time leading state breeders Nina and Ron Hagen ranked third as the 30 starters bred at their Enumclaw nursery earned a $305,183 total. Their leading 2018 runner was $32,875 earner Guardian One, a daughter of their El Dorado Farms stallion Coast Guard. The then five-year-old mare won or placed in six of her eight starts at Emerald Downs last season.

Jean Welch, of Tall Cedars Farm in Enumclaw, came in at the number four spot with $88,865 of her $182,542 total being earned by Marqula, who gained the entirety of that amount while racing at Sha Tin and Happy Valley racetracks in China.

Elwin and Patti Gibson and their Ellensburg-based Gibson Thoroughbred Farm finished in fifth after the 25 starters they bred won 22 races and earned $178,368. Flatter Cat, a son of their senior sire Parker's Storm Cat, was their leading earner. ■

Breeders Mary Lou and Terry Griffin join owners John and Janene Maryanski in celebrating Bella Mia's title as the Save a Racehorse dba TRAC champion three-year-old filly. They are joined by sponsor Lisa Capellaro and her daughter Jordan Capellaro and Megan Canady.

Debbie and Rick Pabst were among those who dressed the part for the Hollywood awards-themed occasion. The Blue Ribbon Farm proprietors received their fifth Daily Racing Form breeder of the year title, as well as being acknowledged as the breeders of 2018 Castlegate Farm champion older filly or mare and Drew and Jamie Baker champion turf horse Psycho Sister.

Richard "Swede" Larson (above left) was on-hand to receive the Sport Horse Medicine Champion older horse plaque for Hit the Beach on behalf of himself and his partners Ed Zenker and H. R. "Pat" Mullens. Trainer Mullens, 92, was also recognized with a special racetrack achievement award. Bruun picked up two trophies for Hit the Beach's breeders Jeff and Doris Harwood, including a mint julep cup from the Daily Racing Form for the breeders of the Washington-bred (Hit the Beach) with the highest Beyer win speed figure (90) in 2018.

On one of three trips to the podium, owners John and Janene Maryanski, joined in the center by partner Gail Schneider, accepted the evening's award for their top sprinter Invested Prospect.

Emerald Downs Director of Broadcast Publicity, and Sippin Fire co-owner, Joe Withee presented the Duane Weber Insurance champion sprinter plaque won by Dunn Bar Ranch-bred Invested Prospect to ranch manager Javier Ruvalcaba, who accepted on Charlie Dunn's behalf.

Connie Belshay bred Freight NW champion two-year-old filly Money Inthe Starrs. She is shown next to Freight NW representative Michelle Parker, and Brooke Ferguson, who accepted on behalf of the champion filly's owner Mark Dedomenico.

Belshay was also honored with a special breeding award. She is shown with her longtime friend and mentor Debbie Pabst, who introduced the award winner.

Three special industry members. WHBPA Willing Heart Award honoree Lanna Allen, WHBPA Executive Secretary Mary Ann O'Connell and WHBPA/WTBOA Special Recognition Award winner Jan Baze.

El Dorado sire of the year honors went to Blue Ribbon Farm stallion Atta Boy Roy. Farm owners Debbie and Rick Pabst (in tuxedo), who also bred the champion runner with Patricia Murphy, and Ellie and Roy Schaefer who raced "Roy." Presenter Halvorson stands behind at left.

Broodmare of the year honors went to John Roche's Premo Copy. WTBOA staffer Susan van Dyke presented the award, which was accepted on Roche's behalf, by Halvorson.

Lauren Widaman, daughter of NTRA's (and former Emerald Downs employee) Fritz Widaman, was on hand to present the NTRA leading owner award, which went to Scott Herbertson.

O'Connell presented the Backstretch Chapel Faithful Servant Award to Bartola Villa.

Emerald Downs' chaplain Gilbert Aguilar gave the invocation.

Emerald Downs President Phil Ziegler shared the emcee microphone with Withee; both were aided throughout the evening by Bruun.

Poet's Corner

We invite your submissions.

SUMI-E HORSE

by M. Anne Sweet

From a Sumi-e painting by Melanie Anderson, which first appeared on the December 1993 Stallion Register cover.

Still
white head
wind-flagged by mane and tail lungs deep-caged and breath heavy legs fire forward
race white paper away from frame onto a sand track.
Canary yellow silks
kneel into saddle silence
a storm cantered
across long ago desert drifts now whirls grandstand benched crowds cheers and faces sucked into his path my windthought sucked in where my eyes
kneel centered on the Zen silent
white head

Emerald Downs announces 2019 Stakes Schedule

Emerald Downs Racetrack & Casino announced a 27-race stakes schedule worth an aggregate $1,550,000 in purses for the 2019 racing season that begins Saturday, April 20.

The 84th renewal of the $200,000 Longacres Mile (G3) on August 11 – the earliest date ever for the Northwest’s premier race – anchors a championship Sunday quadruple-header featuring championship races in four separate divisions.

In addition to the Longacres Mile for three-year-olds and up, August 11 features the $50,000 Emerald Distaff for older fillies and mares, the $50,000 Muckleshoot Derby for three-year-olds and the $50,000 Washington Oaks for three-year-old fillies. With the Distaff, Derby and Oaks all carded at 1 1/8 miles, the day features an unprecedented four two-turn stakes events.

“Having four championship races in one day is a compelling concept for fans and horsemen alike,” said Emerald Downs President Phil Ziegler. “The build-up should be a lot of fun.”

The majority of stakes are scheduled during the latter half of the 67-day meeting, with 22 stakes scheduled for July, August and September.

A second stakes quadruple-header will be offered on Sunday, July 21, featuring the $50,000 Mt. Rainier Stakes for older horses in a final tune-up for the Longacres Mile, $50,000 Boeing Stakes for older fillies and mares, the $50,000 King County Express for two-year-old colts and geldings and the $50,000 Angie C. Stakes for two-year-old fillies.

The Xpressbet Washington Cup – six stakes for Washington-breds worth an aggregate $300,000 – features stakes double-headers on September 1, 8 and 15. The new WA Cup format was an instant hit in 2018 with average field size of 8.2 runners.

Overall, stakes races averaged 8.0 runners in 2018, with a $15.40 average $2 win payoff.

The 2019 schedule offers ten stakes for older horses (five apiece for males and females), ten for three-year-olds (five apiece for males and females) and seven for two-year-olds (three apiece for males and females, plus the open Gottstein Futurity).

Enhanced by $50,000 from the Northwest Race Series, the Gottstein Futurity has been doubled in value to $100,000 for 2019. At 1 1/16 miles, the Gottstein is the lone route stakes for two-year-olds and is scheduled on closing day, Sunday, September 22.

The ninth renewal of the 440-yard Bank of America Emerald Championship Challenge is offered for Quarter Horses on Sunday, August 25, as part of a Quarter Horse triple-header also featuring the $25,000 John Deere Juvenile Challenge at 350 yards and the $15,000 Emerald Downs Distance Challenge at 870 yards.

Indian Relay Racing also returns in 2019.

The fourth annual Muckleshoot Gold Cup – featuring Indian Tribes from throughout the western United States and Canada – is scheduled Friday, June 14, Saturday, June 15 and Sunday, June 16. Each day features three heats, with total prize money of $75,000 for the three-day event.

Emerald Downs’ opening day is Saturday, April 20, with post time 2 p.m., and the first stakes, the $50,000 Seattle Stakes for three-year-old fillies, comes three weeks later on Sunday, May 12. ■

WASHINGTON RACING HALL OF FAME

Military Hawk

Washington's second leading earner of all time

by Emily Shields

Few horses have campaigned with both the longevity and the success that Military Hawk displayed throughout his nine-year career. The popular chestnut gelding made a staggering 86 starts, finishing in the top three spots 52 times. When the darling of the Washington racing community finally retired in 1997, he had done more than enough to cement his place in the state's Hall of Fame.

George and Norma Sedlock bred Military Hawk under the banner of their G & N Thoroughbreds. They also campaigned and stood his sire, Colonel Stevens, a graded stakes-placed stakes winner and Washington champion who made all 16 of his starts at the old Longacres racetrack. The Sedlocks stood Colonel Stevens after his retirement and supported him with their own mares, including the unraced Flying Lark daughter S. S. Hawk.

Her first foal, a Spanish Way colt named Spanish Hawk, hinted at Military Hawk's future durability by racing 48 times, with a record of ten wins, ten seconds and eight thirds. Military Hawk was born two years later, on April 8, 1987. Eventually, all 14 of S. S. Hawk's foals would make it to the races, and 13 would win, but Military Hawk proved to be the best of them by far.

George and Norma Sedlock bred and raced Military Hawk under their G & N Thoroughbreds banner and also raced his sire, Washington two-year-old champion Colonel Stevens.

In 1991 Military Hawk won the ten-furlong Seattle Handicap at Longacres over stablemate – and later pasture mate – Erin's Lord by 2 1/2 lengths.

The Early Years

The Sedlocks turned Military Hawk over to Larry and Sharon Ross, trainers who were embarking on a long journey of conditioning successful West Coast runners, including Colonel Stevens. The narrow-framed Military Hawk would prove to be their next top runner, but when he debuted at the $16,000 claiming level, Military Hawk finished 12 lengths behind winner Falling Star and gave no indication of his future grit.

Military Hawk broke his maiden by four lengths in his third start, August 30, 1989, at Longacres. Ten days later he won again at the $25,000 level, scoring by six lengths ahead of overmatched rivals. His first stakes race was the prestigious Joe Gottstein Futurity, where Military Hawk finished sixth of 13 in his first try around two turns. He won the Juvenile Mile-His Handicap at Playfair and the Yakima/WTBA/Rainier Fall Futurity at Yakima Meadows to round out his juvenile season.

At age three in 1990, Military Hawk made nine of his ten starts at Longacres, with his lone victory of the season coming in the $30,000 Inlet Handicap at Exhibition Park. He had a solid but frustrating campaign, running second in the Longacres Derby and Bellevue Handicap, and third in the Spokane Handicap. His season ended with an $80,000 claiming race at Longacres. Military Hawk finished third, beaten 5 1/2 lengths.

To kick off 1991, Military Hawk made three starts at Golden Gate Fields, but failed to hit the board. Returned to his native state, the Colonel Stevens gelding won two in a row, including the Renton Handicap under jockey Gary Baze, who had been a regular rider of Military Hawk until that point. Baze even credited the runner with getting both horse and rider safely around a sloppy racetrack at Playfair in 1989 when, thanks to the muddy conditions, Baze ran out of goggles too early. The jockey later broke his leg and had to watch others partner with Military Hawk for the duration of his lengthy career.

It was under Luis Jauregui that Military Hawk won the $40,650 Seattle Handicap, a ten-furlong contest marking the furthest distance the gelding had ever covered. The victory came just two weeks after he finished fourth in his first attempt at the Longacres Mile (G3), known at the time as the Rainier Mile Handicap. Military Hawk finished third in the Washington Championship Stakes to round out the season with three wins, led by two stakes wins, in 11 starts.

Champion on the Rise

1992 would prove to be the final year for Longacres, and the Rosses made the most of it, starting Military Hawk there eight times that season. Despite ten-to-one odds, Military Hawk fittingly won the Gary Baze Tribute Stakes in June, honoring his former rider during his recovery. Military Hawk finished second in both the Longacres Budweiser Breeders' Cup Handicap and the Lansdowne Handicap, butting heads with some excellent runners bred outside the state of Washington.

Although he finished seventh in his second Longacres Mile, Military Hawk rebounded to win the final stakes race in Longacres' storied history, the $46,000 Washington Championship Stakes. Gary Stevens, a Kentucky Derby-winning jockey who would eventually be named to Washington's Racing Hall of Fame, as well as the National Racing Hall of Fame's roster, was in town to pay homage to the track, and guided Military Hawk to a popular victory in the 1 1/16-mile race. Military Hawk was later voted the state's top older horse.

California Bound

While Washington horsemen awaited the arrival of a future western track, Larry Ross moved his string to Northern California while Sharon Ross stayed behind in the Evergreen State. Military Hawk won only once in nine starts in 1993, taking the Pass the Glass Stakes on the dirt at Golden Gate. He fared better in 1994, winning the Alamedan, Vallejo Day and Joseph T. Grace handicaps at the Pleasanton, Solano and Santa Rosa fair meets, respectively. He ran third in the San Matean Handicap at Bay Meadows and even tried the Phil D. Shepherd Stakes at Pomona's Fairplex Park, where he finished a disappointing eighth.

That concluded the 1994 season for Military Hawk, who would win only once in 1995. His lone victory came in the West Twelve Ranch Handicap at Bay Meadows, a 14-to-one surprise to bettors that had written him off. He finished third at 25-to-one in the William P. Kyne Handicap, losing only to the two race favorites, Grade 2 victor Lykatill Hil and Grade 1 winner Slew of Damascus.

Return to Washington with the Opening of Emerald Downs

The day Emerald Downs opened, June 20, 1996, Military Hawk was there, going to the post for the $59,000 Auburn Breeders' Cup Handicap. He finished fifth that day, but continued to compete gamely against the best the track had to offer. Military Hawk ran second in the Budweiser Emerald Handicap, fourth again in the Longacres Mile and was third in the Washington Championship Handicap, earning another $61,640 for the season. It was the only year he did not win a race.

At age ten, the seemingly ageless Military Hawk made eight more starts, winning twice. No longer able to outrun his younger rivals, Military Hawk won at the $32,000 claiming level, becoming the only horse in history to have won at all four of Washington's major tracks: Longacres, Playfair, Yakima Meadows and Emerald Downs.

The tough and classy Military Hawk ran for nine seasons while under the care of Hall of Fame trainers Larry and Sharon Ross (in the winner's circle above, far left).

The veteran runner then made three more starts at the $40,000 claiming level. On August 17, jockey Gary Stevens was in town to pilot Hesabull in the Longacres Mile. He also picked up the mount on Military Hawk, who he had not ridden in seven years. Military Hawk dug in gamely, winning his final start by a head to the adoration of the crowd and announcer Robert Geller, who shouted, "The Hawk has won it!"

After the stirring victory, Military Hawk had officially earned his retirement. His record reads 86 starts, 18 wins, 15 seconds and 19 thirds for earnings of $686,128 and a 7.52 SSI. He left the track following an emotional retirement ceremony during which George Sedlock spoke praise for not only the horse and the 21 jockeys that had ridden him, but also the fans who loved him.

Military Hawk, who ranks second only to Saratoga Passage among Washington-bred earners, lived out his days at the Rosses' Sunfall Farm in Auburn, cozying up to classy pasture mates such as fellow Hall of Famer Chum Salmon and stakes winner Passing Game. Colic claimed Military Hawk's life in December 2011, when the gelding was 24.

As the winner of 12 stakes who ran at a dozen different racetracks in his spectacular career, Military Hawk is an exemplary addition to the Washington Racing Hall of Fame. ■

Pedigree Notes

The mighty Military Hawk was one of two major Washington-bred runners sired by 1983 Washington champion two-year-old male Colonel Stevens – the other being Cadette Stevens, who won ten stakes and placed in a dozen others while also running for the Sedlocks' G & N Thoroughbreds. The $453,539 earner probably was one of the most accomplished runners never to gain a Washington champion title.

Colonel Stevens was sired by Lt. Stevens, a $240,949 stakes-winning full brother to champion Moccasin, $635,074 earner Ridan (who had a 73.68 SSI) and stakes-placed "Blue Hen" Thong. All four of these superior horses were offspring of the stakes-placed *Nasrullah son Nantallah, who earned a paltry $17,825.

Nantallah sired only 198 foals, but had ten percent (19) stakes winners (the breed average is somewhere around four percent). Among his other significant daughters were: Dixieland II, dam of double classic winner and champion Canonero II; Lady Dulcinea, dam of champion juvenile filly Heavenly Cause; Tallahto, dam of Grade 1 winners Hidden Light and Prince True; and Nanticious, dam of a trio of graded stakes winners, including Jockey Club Gold Cup (G1) winner Group Plan.

Military Hawk's dam, S. S. Hawk was a daughter of Flying Lark. The son of champion grass horse and 1974 national leading sire T. V. Lark stood in Oregon, but was among the nation's leading sires by number of winners during the early 1980s. As S. S. Hawk was inbred 4x4 to *Nasrullah, Military Hawk carried a 4x5x5 cross to the temperamental, but outstanding sire.

From 1959 to 1976, *Nasrullah or those stallions directly linked to him in sire line, topped the nation's list of sires 14 times. In addition, 1984 leader Seattle Slew traces in male line back to *Nasrullah. Slew's son A. P. Indy led all stallions in 2008 and more recently A. P. Indy's grandson Tapit was the dominant leader 2014-16. ■

2018 Breeders' Awards

Breeders' awards distributed to breeders of Washington-breds who finished first, second or third in 2018 Emerald Downs races totaled $175,630, compared to $272,427 in 2016.

Mandated by the state's racing act in accordance with RCW 67.16.175, breeders' awards are funded from a percentage of the exotic pari-mutuel wagering during live racing at Emerald Downs and its OTBs (off-track betting locations) and are paid at the end of the race year. Beginning in 2004, of the Source Market Fees collected from advance deposit wagering, 2.5 percent goes to owners' and breeders' awards (WAC 260-49-070).

Breeders' Awards Factor

For many years, it was assumed that Emerald Downs retained six percent from daily gross receipts for exotic wagering on both live racing and simulcasting. Of that six percent, one percent was designated for breeders' awards.

In 2017, it was determined that, in actuality, Emerald Downs had not been retaining six percent from the daily gross receipts on exotic wagering from simulcasting. Hence, going forward, breeders' awards will be calculated on exotic wagering from live racing only.

The total of $175,630 for 2018 is allocated as 75 percent for first, 15 percent for second and ten percent for third. These totals are divided by the total amount of corresponding purse monies earned by Washington-breds, which creates three corresponding factors. The appropriate factor is then multiplied by the total purse monies won by each Washington-bred to arrive at the breeders' award amount.

Order of Finish	Breeders' Awards	WA-bred Earnings	Factor
1st (75%)	$131,722	$1,518,000	8.68%
2nd (15%)	$26,344	$528,815	4.98%
3rd (10%)	$17,563	$463,445	3.79%

One percent of the pari-mutuel wagering, per RCW 67.16.102(1), during live racing at Emerald Downs and its OTBs (off-track betting locations) is paid at the end of the race year to all licensed owners whose Washington-bred horses place first, second, third or fourth at Emerald Downs.

Beginning in 2004, of the Source Market Fees collected from advance deposit wagering, 2.5 percent goes to owners' and breeders' awards (WAC 260-49-070).

In 2018 the payment factor was 18.7 percent, compared to 17.28 percent in 2017.

Biofilm-Associated Endometritis

Bacterial endometritis (infection of the uterine mucosa) that is refractory to traditional antimicrobial treatment is a significant challenge to the equine breeding industry. A common survival strategy employed by bacterial pathogens is the formation of a biofilm, which is a complex and dynamic structure composed of aggregates of bacteria surrounded by a thick protective layer of exopolysaccharide. Biofilms confer resistance to immune mediated clearance by reducing the host's ability to recognize infection. Additionally, biofilms protect bacteria from antibiotics by providing a diffusion barrier and creating a microenvironment that slows down bacterial metabolism and replication, which makes them more tolerant to antimicrobial agents.

Using a model of equine infectious endometritis, we have clearly identified the ability of the bacterium Pseudomonas aeruginosa to form a biofilm with the uterus of the mare. The biofilm forms in multiple locations with the greatest amount of adherent bacteria occurring between the tissue folds and in the uterine horns. This suggests that a traditional guarded culture swab may not be ideal for detecting biofilm-associated infections and a low volume lavage may be a better diagnostic tool. The bacteria are in greater numbers deep within the endometrial glands as compared to the luminal surface. To be successful in clearing these infections, treatment options will need to be capable of penetrating deeper into the glands and tissue. For microscopic visualization of biofilms with endometrial biopsies, Bouin's solution provides significantly better preservation of the biofilm matrix on the surface of the endometrium as compared to traditional formalin fixation.

Bacteria residing in a biofilm can be up to 1,000 times more refractive to treatment with antibiotics as compared to free-living (planktonic) bacteria. The simple administration of more or a higher concentration of antibiotics has failed to eliminate chronic biofilm infections in both human and veterinary medicine. The goal in treating a biofilm-associated infection is to disrupt the biofilm material and kill the bacteria residing within the biofilm.

A series of in vitro (within a laboratory setting, such as in a test tube) studies were conducted to assess biofilm dispersal and/or bacterial killing by antibiotics and non-antibiotic agents alone or in combination against Gram-negative bacteria (E. coli, K. pneumoniae and P. aeruginosa). Data would indicate the antibiotics and non-antibiotic agents are more effective against biofilms if administered concurrently. When dealing with bacterial infections protected in biofilms, the treatment period should be at least 72 hours in duration, with repeated treatments every 24 hours (i.e., a uterine infusion of the selected combination once every 24 hours for three consecutive days). Following this treatment protocol, the biofilm was completely disrupted and bacterial killing ensued. Assessment of antibiotic sensitivity of the offending pathogen(s) is still important as inherent genetic resistance of the bacteria involved will not be overcome solely by the addition of non-antibiotic compounds.

A recent in vivo study evaluated the intrauterine treatment of a preformed Pseudomonas aeruginosa biofilm with a combination of ceftiofur and tris-EDTA or ceftiofur and tris-EDTA alone. Of five mares treated with a combination of ceftiofur and tris-EDTA, all effectively cleared the infection. This contrasted with only two of five mares treated with ceftiofur and one of five mares with tris-EDTA. The findings confirmed greater efficiency in killing preformed biofilm within the uterus by using a combination of antibiotic (ceftiofur) and non-antibiotic (tris-EDTA) agents.

Advances in our understanding of the significance of biofilms in human and veterinary medicine will in time lead to improved diagnostics and more effective treatment modalities. Fortunately several therapeutic options are currently available to clinicians for the treatment of biofilm-associated equine bacterial endometritis.

Commentary Excerpt

Late-term abortion is one of the most devastating issues horse breeders face. Every pregnancy represents a labor of love, with substantial amount of time, energy and money put into achieving the perfect foal. Every pregnancy loss raises questions concerning our ability to have prevented that loss and whether we could have done more.

I cannot stress enough the importance of sending all aborted foals, including fetal membranes and maternal serum, to a veterinary diagnostic laboratory. When breeders fail to submit abortions, it becomes more difficult to spot trends and, in turn, becomes more difficult to identify and respond to emerging threats. It's easy to justify only submitting abortions without an obvious cause; however, the overall health of the equine breeding industry relies on the submission of every abortion, every time. ■

Roy H Repeats as Eclipse Award Winner; Stormy Liberal Named Top Turf Male

2017 Eclipse Award winner Roy H added his second male sprint championship title in 2018. Roy H, who races for Rockingham Ranch and David A. Bernstein LLC and is trained by Peter Miller, won the Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1) for the second time, along with tallies in the Grade 1 Santa Anita Sprint Championship and Grade 2 Palos Verdes Stakes. Roy H had a 3-1-1 record from five starts and earnings of $1,660,000. He received 234 of the 249 available first place votes in the male sprint category.

The now seven-year-old More Than Ready gelding romped to a four-length win in his first start of 2019 when he took the $200,000 Palos Verdes Stakes (G2) at Santa Anita on January 19 and pushed his total earnings to $3,139,765.

Stormy Liberal, who won the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint (G1) for the second straight year, was named 2018 champion turf male. Also owned by Rockingham Ranch and David A. Bernstein LLC and trained by Miller, the gelded son of Stormy Atlantic—Vassar, by Royal Academy, is a full brother to successful El Dorado Farms LLC stallion Coast Guard. Stormy Liberal also won the Grade 3 Eddie D Stakes and Green Flash Stakes and had $935,360 in 2018 earnings. Thirteen turf males received Eclipse votes, with Stormy Liberal outpacing runner-up Expert Eye (GB) 85 to 66.

On New Year's Day 2019 the now seven-year-old Stormy Liberal ran second in the John Hernandez Stakes (G3) at Santa Anita.

Unbeaten Triple Crown winner Justify took Horse of the Year and champion three-year-old male honors, while his breeder John D. Gunther was named top breeder.

The other Eclipse Awards were given to: Accelerate (older male dirt), Unique Bella (older female dirt), Sistercharlie (Ire) (female turf horse), Shamrock Rose (female sprinter), Game Winner (two-year-old male), Jaywalk (two-year-old female), Monomoy Girl (three-year-old female), Zanjabeel (GB) (steeplechase), Hronis Racing (owner), Chad Brown (trainer), Irad Ortiz Jr. (jockey) and Weston Hamilton (apprentice jockey).

2019 Sun Downs Racing Dates Modified Due to Extreme Winter Weather

for Sun Downs at their March commission meeting due to weather-related issues in February and March. The Kennewick track will still run a six-day mixed Thoroughbred and Quarter Horse meet, but racing has been delayed by a week from their former April 20-21 opening and will now begin on the final weekend in April (27-28), followed by racing on the May 4-5 Kentucky Derby weekend and May 11-12.

Galilean Receives 2019 California Diamond Award for Leading California-Bred Two-year-Old Auction Graduate

Neal and Pam Christopherson, of the Oregon-based Bar C Racing Stables, were presented with the 2019 California Diamond Award in recognition for breeding the leading California-bred two-year-old earner of 2018 sold at public auction: the multiple stakes-winning and Kentucky Derby (G1) hopeful Galilean. Produced out of the El Prado (Ire) mare Fresia and foaled at Harris Farms, the Uncle Mo colt led all California-bred two-year-old auction graduates last year with earnings of $151,000.

A $60,000 purchase by Quarter Pole Enterprises from the Bar C Racing Stables consignment at the 2017 Barretts August Select Yearling Sale, Galilean was sent from California to Eddie Woods Training Center in Florida for early conditioning and subsequently re-sold by Woods to West Point Thoroughbreds for a sale-topping $600,000 at the 2018 Barretts Spring Two-year-olds in Training Sale.

Campaigned by West Point, Denise Barker and William Sandbrook, Galilean made his winning debut for Racing Hall of Fame trainer Jerry Hollendorfer in the $100,000 Barretts Juvenile Stakes last September, becoming the only first-time starter in the race's 29-year history to accomplish the feat. Following a narrow second-place finish to California champion male Cruel Intention in the $196,000 Golden State Juvenile Stakes, he closed out his 2018 season in December with a nine-length romp in the $100,000 King Glorious Stakes.

Galilean kicked off his 2019 campaign on February 18 with a 4 1/2-length victory in the $188,000 California Cup Derby. On March 16, Galilean finished third in the first division of the $750,000 Rebel Stakes (G2) at Oaklawn Park in his first start outside of California. In his five starts he has a 3-1-1 record and $336,000 in earnings. All of Galilean's races have been in stakes events.

Established by Barretts Equine Limited in 2016 as the McMahon Award, and originally named after Barretts co-founder and former president Jerry McMahon, the trophy was renamed in 2018 at McMahon's suggestion to honor the inaugural award winner: California Diamond, the multiple stakes-winning California champion bred by Stormy Hull and tragically lost in the San Luis Rey Downs fire in December 2017. Coincidentally, California Diamond was sired by perennial leading Oregon stallion Harbor the Gold, who stands at Bar C Racing Stables.

Percy's Bluff Retires to Down the Stretch Ranch

Percy's Bluff, Washington's 2016 most improved plater, has been retired from racing and now calls Down the Stretch Ranch (DTSR) in Creston home.

A 2012 gelding by El Dorado Farm stallion Raise the Bluff—Persephonie, by Conquistador Cielo, Percy's Bluff was bred by Nina and Ron Hagen and sold through their El Dorado Farms at the 2013 WTBOA Sale where he was purchased by trainer Howard Belvoir for $5,000.

Unraced at two, Percy's Bluff made 44 starts during his four seasons of racing with an 18-10-8 record and $239,438 in earnings. After starting his career for Belvoir and Rising Star Stable, Percy's Bluff was claimed three times, the last time for $20,000 by National Racing Hall of Fame trainer Jerry Hollendorfer. He won 13 races while in Hollendorfer's care. In his final start, Percy's Bluff finished third in an allowance/$62,500 claiming race on May 18, 2018, at Golden Gate Fields.

Down the Stretch Ranch was co-founded in 2015 by Hollendorfer, his wife Janet, and Boone McCanna. The ranch is a 501(c)(3) non-profit Thoroughbred racehorse retirement facility that connects injured or retired racehorses with United States military veterans.

"Percy's Bluff is doing great," said McCanna. "He will remain at the ranch. He has such a great personality and he will be great for therapy for our veterans and at-risk children."

On March 5, Persephonie, now 20, presented the Hagens with a full sister to Percy's Bluff, who according to Nina is a "beautiful filly and full of spit-fire! Wow, what a pistol!" (See Foal Reports, page 59.)

"Percy's Bluff gave so much to this industry and will still continue to do so much good for our veterans and at-risk kids," commented Nina. "I know he will become the veterans' and kids' new best friend and favorite horse."

DTSR recently expanded their mission to utilize the ranch, horses, surrounding state lands and Lake Roosevelt to help serve underprivileged children. The children will have the opportunity to have an outdoor experience and also learn the responsibility of caring for horses and horsemanship skills.

2019 Portland Meadows Stakes Results

Led by the $25,000 Portland Mile Handicap, the January 27 Portland Meadows card featured five stakes races for Thoroughbred runners.

The Portland Mile drew a field of ten. Emilie Kubinova Rosales and Tammy Boyer's Take Charge Deputy went off as the three-to-five favorite. He didn't disappoint, as the four-year-old California-bred son of Take Charge Indy—Promoted Deputy, by Deputy Minister, held a half-length advantage over 31-to-one longshot My Chief at the wire. Trained by Jorge Rosales and ridden by Jose Zunino, Take Charge Indy earned his fifth Portland stakes victory in a time of 1:39.43. The bay colt has won seven of his 17 starts and earned $59,910.

Equine Guelph Launches Free Online Mare and Foal Care Tool

In February 2019 Equine Guelph announced its new “Mare & Foal Care Tool” (equineguelph.ca/marefoaltool), a free and interactive online tool to help users learn about reproduction in horses. The Mare & Foal Care Tool was designed and developed in partnership with PFERA, an equine reproductive biotechnology company, as a resource for horse owners and breeders.

This free online resource will take users through the complete cycle of reproduction in the horse, from preparing to breed a mare to caring for the newborn foal. Users can start with The Pregnancy Wheel, where they’ll see how their foal will develop through pregnancy and learn what care their mare will need. They can experience the Mare & Foal E-Learning Checklist, an interactive module that will take users through the needs of the mare and/or foal before, during and after pregnancy. Finally, users can watch the Foaling Time Video and print the Foaling

Checklist Poster so they're ready when it's time to meet their new little one.

Tracey Chenier, equine reproductive specialist at the Ontario Veterinary College, provided her expertise in the development of the tool. In the Foaling Time Video, she covers the basics of predicting and monitoring foaling. Chenier highlights the importance of this information. "Mare owners should know the signs that predict foaling is close, and what normal foaling looks like. That way you can be there when your mare is foaling to be sure everything is going well. It might make the difference in having a live foal."

Top Quality, the 2014 daughter of Quality Road who won or placed in eight Emerald Downs and Hastings Racecourse stakes for David Mowat and his Ten Broeck Farm Inc., was hammered down to WinStar Farm for $335,000. The $139,704 earning racing or broodmare prospect was conditioned throughout her successful racing campaign by Blaine Wright.

Other horses noted selling with a Pacific Northwest connection include Cholena, a seven-year-old mare by Indian Charlie who had been covered by Maclean's Music. A half-sister to graded stakes winners Dixie Chatter and Rumor, her second dam is Herman Sarkowsky's national champion and graded stakes producer Phone Chatter. The mare brought $115,000.

Sauvignon Girl, a 15-year-old unraced daughter of Fusaichi Pegasus, is a half-sister to Emerald Downs stakes winners Taste the Passion and Bisbee's Prospect. Sauvignon Girl has produced two winners, including stakes-placed Mind Trappe, and was sold carrying a full sibling to that winner. Her 2018 filly by Fast Anna sold for $18,000.

Dia d'Oro, a winning daughter of Tap Day out of Washington champion and Grade 2 winner Favored One, is the dam of an unnamed two-year-old colt by Violence that sold for $25,000.

2019 CTBA January Mixed Sale

In an effort to fill the gap left by the departure of Barretts Sales, the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association (CTBA) offered a mixed sale at Fairplex in Pomona on January 16. A total of 154 horses, including three supplemental entries, were cataloged. After 32 withdrawals, 122 went through the ring with 81 listed as sold. The sale grossed $589,300 with a $7,275 average and $4,000 median.

Topping the venue was a two-year-old colt by Merit Man out of the stakes-placed Aldebaran mare Seaside who was purchased by Florida trainer Bob Hess Jr. for $60,000. A $462,030 stakes-winning son of With Distinction, Merit Man's first crop of runners just turned three. Hess, who had trained Merit Man to three of his stakes wins, also purchased a two-year-old filly by the same sire for $30,000.

A two-year-old filly by Clubhouse Ride, on a $36,000 bid, was the highest priced distaffer. The filly was consigned by Havens Bloodstock Agency on behalf of Washington horsewoman Rozamund Barclay.

Tall and Sweet, a seven-year-old winning daughter of Lemon Drop Kid bred to Danzing Candy, topped all breeding stock with a $32,000 bid from NW Management.

2019 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Winter Mixed Sale

After the addition of 55 supplemental entries, Fasig-Tipton offered 531 horses in their February 4-5 sale held at their Newtown Paddocks in Lexington.

After 120 withdrawals, 411 horses went through the ring with 327 selling for a $9,659,300 gross, $29,539 average (up three percent from 2018's $28,673) and $15,000 median (up 42.7 percent).

Six-year-old broodmare prospect Cheekaboo, a Grade 2-winning daughter of Unusual Heat who earned $367,393, topped the sale on a $300,000 bid from K R Japan. The final mare through the ring, $211,362 stakes-placed racing or broodmare prospect La Manta Gris, by Lemon Drop Kid, sold for the second highest price at $275,000.

Among the horses purchased for $100,000 or more was 2012 Emerald Downs horse of the meet Class Included, an 11-time stakes winner of $635,526. Bred to top Louisiana stallion Star Guitar – who is the sire of her three other foals – she was secured on an $110,000 bid.

John Parker purchased three horses. The first is a yearling filly by Liaison out of a young Grindstone mare. He also signed for broodmare prospect Delusionist, an unraced daughter of More Than Ready out of a winning half-sister to Emerald Downs stakes-placed Rainier Ice. His final buy was the winning four-year-old gelding Tizwayorthehighway, by Tizway.

Kara Toye's Moxie Bloodstock purchased $63,542 stakes-placed El Rebecca, an 11-year-old mare by El Corredor, bred to Race Day, for Rick Kessler.

Terrie Baze signed for broodmare New London, a $101,140 earner by Rockport Harbor carrying her first foal (by Klimt). New London is a half-sister to three stakes winners.

OBSC March Two-year-olds in Training Sale

Among those two-year-olds selling at the Ocala Breeders Sales Company (OBSC) sale in Ocala, Florida, on March 12-13, 2019, were three with Pacific Northwest connections. Hip 46, a Twirling Candy—Bella Cantu colt bred in Kentucky by Dr. Rodney Orr, who is a half-brother to Orr's 2014 Oregon horse of the year and Longacres Mile (G3) runner-up Boyett, sold for $40,000. Hip 140, a Karakontie (Jpn)—Down the Well (Ire) half-sister to 2017 Auburn Stakes winner Aqua Frio, brought $365,000. Hip 111, an Empire Maker—Queens Full half-brother to 2012 Emerald Downs champion juvenile filly Go in to the Window, sold post sale for $100,000.

Overall, 309 juveniles of the 577 (with 168 outs) cataloged sold for a $44,422,500 total, a $143,762 average (down 12.6 percent from 2018) and an $80,000 median (down 23.8 percent). RNAs went down from 29.2 percent in 2018 to 24.4 percent in 2019.

GENERAL

Correction

In the "Washington Racing Hall of Fame: Class of 2018 Inductees" article in the Winter 2018 issue it was mistakenly reported that Doris Harwood's first winner as a trainer came in 1991 at Yakima Meadows. Her initial winner actually had come three years earlier when Mary's Friday won at Longacres on June 9, 1988, for her original client (and still active horseman) Michael Pollowitz. We apologize for the error.

2018 Oregon Champions

The Oregon Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (OTOBA) held their snow-delayed annual awards dinner on February 23.

Owner and trainer Jaqueline Smith's Cantchaco was named 2018 horse of the year and champion older horse or gelding. Bred by Larry and Gay Welliver, the 2010 gelding by Ochoco had a 9-3-0 record from his 16 starts last year and earnings of $36,221. The now 16-time stakes winner had won four stakes in 2018 at Portland Meadows, Great Falls and Lethbridge. Oregon's top older male in 2017, Cantchaco now sports a record of 35-11-3 from his 74 lifetime starts and has earnings of $148,861. He is one of three Oregon champions produced out of 2017-18 Oregon broodmare of the year Cant Woman, by Can't Be Slew.

Dr. Ryland and JoAnn Harwood's homebred Tappin the Keg, who won the Bill Wineberg Stakes, was named champion two-year-old colt or gelding. Also trained by Ryland, Tappin the Keg is from the first crop of Washington stallion Running Tap and out of the Harbor the Gold mare My Halo Is Rusty, a daughter of Oregon champion racemare Silver Patrona.

Dr. Rodney Orr's homebred two-year-old filly champion Sari's Tiger, who won the Janet Wineberg Stakes by nearly eight lengths, is out of Orr's stakes-winning Rubiano mare Sariano. A daughter of Orb-bred Grade 1 winner Smiling Tiger, Sari's Tiger placed six times in her ten starts last year and earned $32,666. Sari's Tiger, who is trained by Ben Root, earned her second stakes win in the January 6 Sophomore Stakes at Portland Meadows.

2017 Oregon champion Grinning Tiger was another repeat titleholder in 2018, after the gelded son of Smiling Tiger—Karlée's Kitten, by Pioneering, won the Oregon His Stakes and was runner-up in two other Portland Meadows stakes. In his six starts last year the half-brother to Janet Wineberg Stakes winners Jet Set Kitten and Kozzy's Kitkat had a 2-2-0 record and earned $25,052. The now $50,077 earner was bred by Patrick Cosgrove and races for Janet Cosgrove, Mike Cosgrove, Barbara Eakin, Steve Smith and trainer Jonathan Nance.

Carol Duby's sophomore filly Stay in Grace also earned her second straight champion title after she took the Oregon Hers Stakes. The now three-time stakes-winning daughter of Understatement—Bridled Style, by Grindstone, was bred by Dr. and Mrs. Jack Root Jr. and is trained by Linda Bartels Northam.

Older mare honors went to Lisa Baze and Kyrie Patino's Lovethisbar. A 2014 daughter of Washington sire Demon Warlock, Lovethisbar was bred by Tim Floyd's Warlock Stables, Kelly Dougan and Horseplayers Racing Club and is trained by Rigoberto Velasquez. In 2018 Lovethisbar—who is a full sister to $72,132 stakes winner Redsolocup and a half-sister to stakes-placed Oldtoytrain—had a 3-3-1 record from her 12 starts and $34,005 in earnings. The stakes threesome are among four winners produced out of multiple winner Trainingat the Bar, by Valid Wager. Twice stakes-placed at two, Lovethisbar won the Donna Jensen Memorial Handicap in January.

For the tenth consecutive year Bar C Racing Stables' Harbor the Gold led all Oregon stallions. He had a $1,158,223 year-end total. In 2018 the son of Seeking the Gold had 50 winners among his 85 starters, which included nine stakes winners—led by a trio of Washington champions—and a dozen stakes-placed runners.

Trainer Jim Gilmour, who had a 15-12-18 record from 115 starts for a 13 percent win figure, 39 percent win-place-show statistic and $61,273 in earnings, was named trainer of the year.

Longtime Oregon Thoroughbred industry leader Paul Hagemann was honored as breeder of the year and also named Oregon's 2018 TOBA winner.

The article stated that Knowles' fellow Washington Racing Hall of Fame inductee, Gary Baze, had recently been inducted into the Central Washington Sports Hall of Fame . . . Graham breeder Connie Belshay was the subject of an article in the January 26, 2019, issue of BloodHorse titled "Northwest Passage" by Lenny Shulman. Belshay had bred two 2018 juvenile stakes winners out of her broodmare band of two. One small mistake was noted in the nice write-up. Abraaj, the sire of Money In the Stalls, stands at Nina and Ron Hagen's El Dorado Farms, not Blue Ribbon Farm . . . Multiple Hall of Fame rider Gary Stevens, who retired permanently from riding after a serious injury last November, is putting his prior acting skills and time spent as a television sport analyst to good use by joining FOX Sports/NYRA Live television programming as a racing analyst on FOX Sports Saturday at the Races. FOX Sports plans to televise 500 hours of NTRA racing in 2019, which is nearly five times more than the sports network televised in 2018 . . . Idaho native and regular Turf Paradise rider Scott Stevens was named the 2019 George Woolf Memorial Award winner for his consistency and work ethics during his 43-year career as a jockey. NEWS FROM THE JOCKEY CLUB

National Thoroughbred Incentive Program 2018 Performance Awards Winners

The Jockey Club Thoroughbred Incentive Program (TIP), which encourages the retraining of Thoroughbreds into other disciplines upon completion of careers in racing or breeding, announced the winners and other placings from its 2018 national performance awards program. The complete list of winners and participants is available at tjctip.com/PerformanceAwardsWinners.

The performance awards recognize Thoroughbreds accumulating the most points at all horse shows in each of the award categories and divisions throughout the year.

"We received applications representing 560 Thoroughbreds competing in more than 11,500 classes and divisions during the 2018 award year," said Kristin Leshney, senior counsel for The Jockey Club and the administrator of TIP. Winners will receive ribbons, prize money and a variety of prizes, including custom Horseware coolers, stall bags, duffel bags and jackets."

Thoroughbred Charities of America sponsored the Green OTTB Category for Thoroughbreds that last raced in 2016, 2017 or 2018.

State-bred or -residing performance awards were sponsored by the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society—Alberta Division, California Thoroughbred Breeders Association, Kentucky Thoroughbred Association, Maryland Horse Breeders Association, North Carolina Thoroughbred Association and WTBOA. In addition, the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) sponsored a Performance Award for horses adopted from TAA-accredited organizations.

2018 performance award winners' photos will be posted on the TIP Facebook page at facebook.com/tjctip.

In addition to Christina Klein and her talented gelding Back to Wine, by Baquero, being Washington's top OTTB horse in 2018 (and for the third year in a row), the Yakima-based team finished first in the nation in the Western category and were named champion in each of the four divisions they were eligible for: Barrels, Pleasure, Trails and Other. Klein and Back to Wine also finished in the top place in the Halter/In Hand and Equitation categories and were sixth in the English Pleasure category nationally, but finished tops in the West. (See "Champions" copy in this issue.)

Finishing on top of the Thoroughbred Charities of America Green OTTB III (last raced in 2018) category was Lucky Tiger, a 2013 gelding by Rallying Cry ridden by Kate Sharkey who had made his final start on July 29, 2018, at Emerald Downs. Lucky Tiger was also named champion horse in the Other division among the OTTB horses who last raced in 2018. In addition, Washington-based rider Summer L. Crosby finished fifth in the OTTB III division aboard Coach Royal, a Kentucky-bred son of Lemon Drop Kid, whose final start had come in January 2018 at Portland Meadows.

Other Washington horses in the national rankings included junior rider Megan Farnsworth and Kactus Relevation, by Katowice. Farnsworth's mount was the champion in the Junior Western division and finished fourth overall in the Western category. They finished in first place in the Junior Rider Award In Hand/General and were second overall in that category. Their team was also reserve champion in the West and Junior competitions in the English Pleasure division and the West Equitation division. Nationally, they finished in fifth place in the Equitation category.

Also, Poet Aureate, a 15-year-old gelding by Liberty Gold, was named Champion Jumper West while ridden by Beth A. Novak, Alexis Novak and Markelle Linstedt. Tiz I Is (shown under the name Kodiak by rider Audrey Newbrey for owner Jenna Newbrey), by Cee's Tizzy, was Reserve Champion Low West Jumper. Best Hoff, by Peterhof, ridden by Kaisa Cannon, finished fifth in the Halter/In Hand category and was sixth place in the Western category; and Bucky B Lucky (shown as Lorenzo by Ruth Jelinek), by Kentucky Lucky, finished fourth in the Halter/In Hand category.

Overall quite a respectable showing as there were only 13 Washington-breds among the 560 Thoroughbreds competing in the TIP program last year.

Performance awards will again be available in 2019. They will be based on results in shows from December 1, 2018, through November 30, 2019. The deadline for submissions is December 20, 2019. Updated forms are available at tjctip.com/About/TBPAF. New for 2019, performance awards will be offered for Endurance and Obstacle Mileage.

A full calendar of 2019 shows offering awards is available at tjctip.com/CalendarOfEvents.

The third TIP Championship Horse Show will be held at the Kentucky Horse Park on September 7-8, in conjunction with the New Vocations All-Thoroughbred Charity Show. A class list is available at tjctip.com/About/CSF.

TIP also announced its youth ambassadors for the 2019 TIP Youth Ambassador Program. The 13 ambassadors come from 11 states – including Aubrey Newbrey from Washington – and cover multiple disciplines, including hunters, jumpers, eventing and dressage. Additional information about the Youth Ambassador Program can be found at tjctip.com/About/TBYPAM.

IN MEMORIAM

Fara Bushnell

Noted Thoroughbred insurance agent and longtime industry member Fara Bushnell, 59, passed on March 10, 2019, in Lexington, Kentucky. She was a close friend and business associate of Seattle bloodstock and insurance agent Claudia A. Canouse.

Judy Anne Essex

Anne Essex, 73, passed away on October 25, 2018. She was born on July 3, 1945, in Portsmouth, Ohio, and was adopted at birth by Robert and Edith Taylor. The family later moved to Las Vegas where Anne graduated from high school.

Anne and future husband Dean were first introduced in 1963 by a client of Dean's who ran a riding academy in Las Vegas. They were married on November 27, 1963, and had two children, Charles and Nancy Lee.

In 1979 Dean sold his farm and veterinary practice in Nevada and moved his family to Snohomish County where they established their 70-acre Granite Falls Thoroughbred Farm. The former dairy has served as a stallion station, Thoroughbred nursery and has also started more than one successful runner on their racing career, including Washington champion Military Hawk (18 wins, $688,128, the second leading Washington-bred earner of all time), stakes winners Cadette Stevens (11 wins, $453,539), Erin's Lord (20 wins, $228,830), My Oooh Aah (seven wins, $254,679) and Kissntheboysgoodby (seven wins, $138,618) and stakes-placed Me O Me O My (seven wins, $124,834). The latter trio of stakes fillies were also bred by the Granite Falls' couple.

Anne's favorite horse was Spanish Smile, a 1983 son of Spanish Way who won ten races in Washington and Oregon and just missed winning the British Columbia Premier's Championship Handicap (G3).

In addition to the horses, Anne loved growing flowers and was active in rescuing pit bull dogs.

Anne is survived by her husband, Dean; son, Charles, a successful trainer in Washington and Arizona; daughter, Nancy Lee (Robert) Carney; grandchildren, Lindsey, Elliott, MacKenzie and Garrett; and sister, Susan.

Donations in memory of Anne can be made to the Granite Falls Food Bank or Old Dog Haven.

Bernie E. Johnson

Bernie Johnson, 71, passed away on January 24, 2019, in Spokane. He was born on February 27, 1947, to Lloyd M. and Judy Johnson. He graduated from University High School in 1964 and then studied engineering at Washington State University and Eastern Washington University. While in college he enrolled in ROTC and later joined the US Army where he served in Vietnam and attained the rank of captain.

When he returned to Spokane he became partners with his father in L. M. Johnson Inc. (road construction), but later formed his own company Valley Aggregate Inc.

Bernie loved working with horses and owned two racehorses. He also enjoyed being part of the Civil Air Patrol.

He is survived by his brother, Terry, of Nine Mile Falls; and nephews, Terry Jr. and Brandon.

Anton Mularski

Anton Mularski, 76, passed away on January 23, 2019. He was born on August 5, 1942, in Badgrund, Germany, and his family moved to Spokane when he was eight. Anton was the second of four children born to Joseph and Karoline Mularski. He attended school at Lincoln and Edison elementary schools, Libby Junior High and Clark High School.

At an early age he began working at Playfair Race Course as a groom. It was then that he developed a love for horses and the sport of horse racing that would last his lifetime.

After high school he married his first wife, Arlene Keilen.

When Anton was 21 he volunteered to join the US Navy and served in Vietnam. After his service he became a sheet metal worker.

At age 33, Anton married his second wife, Kathleen Barnes, and became the father to her six-year-old daughter, Nicole Marie "Doobie." The couple later welcomed Jessica Lynn and Joshua Anton to their family. The family enjoyed travelling, horse shows, jet skiing and Spokane's winter snow activities.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Kathleen; and his parents. Anton is survived by his children, Nicole (Chris) Lynch, Jessica (Jason) Prins and Joshua Mularski; grandchildren, Jaren, Bryden and Tenley Prins; brothers, Bob (Judy) Mularski and Joseph (Vickie) Mularski; and sister, Lucy (Bud) Cash.

Dr. Frank Reynolds

Noted Spokane physician Dr. Frank Reynolds, 83, passed away on February 9, 2019, in Spokane. He was a pioneer in children’s oncology in the Inland Northwest.

Frank was born in Milwaukee. He attended college and received medical training at the University of Wisconsin in Madison, where he grew up and met his wife Sally. They were married for 61 years.

Frank joined the Air Force in 1958, finishing his ten-year service with a position at Fairchild Air Force Base.

but returned to Spokane in the early 1970s, where he stayed for the rest of his life.

During a medical career that began at Fairchild Air Force Base in the 1960s and ended in January 2010 at Providence Sacred Heart Children’s Hospital, Frank saw hundreds of patients inside and outside the office. He is credited with starting the Pediatric Oncology Clinic at Deaconess Hospital in 1982 and serving as its first medical director, as well as assisting with the creation of a summer camp for childhood cancer patients in the early 1980s while still maintaining a general pediatric practice.

Michael D. Wilson, former president and chief executive of Sacred Heart Medical Center in the 1990s and 2000s when Reynolds moved his practice from Deaconess to the children’s hospital, called Frank “a pioneer” at a time when few options were available for families dealing with cancer.

Frank also sought to help the families of the dozens of patients he saw every day. That legacy can be seen in the work of the American Childhood Cancer Association of the Inland Northwest, previously known as Candlelighters.

Frank also raised racehorses and among them was Seattle Best Joe, a son of Personable Joe who was named Washington’s champion two-year-old of 2004 after winning a trio of stakes at Emerald Downs and the Sunny Slope Stakes at Santa Anita. At three, Seattle’s Best Joe won the Sausalito Stakes at Golden Gate Fields en route to earning $150,515 for trainer Howard Belvoir and his partners Dan Corby and Harley Hoppe.

Frank is survived by his wife, Sally; and children, Steve, Andy and Tim Reynolds, and Anne Smith. ■
