Leading Washington Sires

Statistics are compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems, Inc. While every effort is made to prevent errors and omissions, Washington Thoroughbred cannot guarantee their complete and total accuracy. Included are sires standing in the state of Washington. Deceased or retired sires will remain in the leading sire lists until they no longer have Washington-bred runners. Does not include Southern Hemisphere racing. Bold-type represents the leader under that category. Through October 23, 2023.

As he had the winter before, trainer and co-breeder/owner Charlie Essex stabled Blazingbellablu at Turf Paradise for the winter season where she placed in two November stakes at the Arizona oval before heading north to Emerald Downs.

2021 Washington horse of the year and champion sophomore filly Blazingbellablu added the title of Washington champion older filly or mare in 2022. The now five-year-old daughter of Grazen continued to add to her stakes tallies this year with a half-length win over 2022 Emerald Downs top three-year-old filly Slack Tide in the Hastings Stakes.

After her win in the Hastings Stakes, Blazingbellablu finished second by a neck to Our Lyla Grace in the Washington State Legislators Stakes and then was runner-up to Tiz a Macho Girl in the Emerald Distaff Stakes. She next ventured north to Century Mile in Edmonton, Alberta, where she ran third to British Columbia-bred Infinite Patience in the $100,000 (Canadian funds; $73,129 US) Northlands Distaff Stakes.

Back home at Emerald Downs, Blazingbellablu finished out the season with a hard-fought and exciting neck win over 2022 Washington champion three-year-old Anthony's Cleopatra, who was making her first start outside of California. It was another 13 1/4 lengths back to 25 to one longshot Emerald Sea in third. With her 2-2-0 record from four starts, all in Emerald stakes, Blazingbellablu was named top older filly for the 2023 Emerald Downs meeting.

The talented filly has now won or placed in a 13 stakes in her 22 lifetime starts.

Blazingbellablu was sired by now 17-year-old Grazen, who through October 2, 2023, ranks as California's top sire with earnings of over $3.8-million led by six stakes winners and three other stakes-placed runners, including multiple stakes winners Alice Marble and Rose Maddox. The sire of 21 stakes winners total, his get have earned over $18.7-million with over an $86,000 average earnings per starter. His leading earner is 2021 California horse of the year Lieutenant Dan, a graded stakes winner of $923,740.

As a racehorse, Grazen, a gray/roan son of three-time Grade 2 winner Benchmark, broke his maiden in the restricted NTRA Maiden Stakes and then won the Grade 3 Affirmed Handicap over Misremembered and the El Cajon Stakes as a three-year-old. He next finished second to Misremembered in the Grade 2 Swaps Stakes. In his seven starts, Grazen had a 4-1-0 record and $245,400 in earnings.

Grazen was moved this past summer to Mike and Angie Scully's Eclipse Thoroughbred Training and Sports Therapy near Buellton, California, for the 2024 breeding season. He previously stood at the former Santa Ynez-based and now Kentucky-based Tommy Town Thoroughbreds.

Originally a $250,000 RNA at the 2006 Keeneland September Yearling Sale, Blazingbellablu's dam Bellomesa would prove winless in her three starts at two while racing for her breeder David Garvin. Garvin also bred Bellomesa's $100,000-plus stakes-winning half-sisters Ayla Bella, by Touch Gold, and Alex's Moon, by Malibu Moon – the latter who finished her racing career racing for Mark Dedomenico LLC and partners – and English Group 2-placed Jobe, by Johannesburg.

Alex's Moon is the dam of Luna Fortis, a 2016 daughter of Will Take Charge who was a stakes winner in Puerto Rico in 2021 and 2022. She won 16 races during her 37-race career in the US and Puerto Rico and earned $314,491.

Freightline moved up to the head of the Washington juvenile division with his 3 1/4-length score in the WTBOA Lads Stakes. The precocious son of top Washington juvenile sire Coast Guard got a second dose of early talent from his state champion two-year-old dam Knight Raider. He was honored as Washington-bred of the week twice during the Emerald Downs meet.

Freightline, who races for Gold Coast Racing III, a partnership of Nina and Ron Hagen, David Israel, Joe Withee, Steve Bullock, Steve Opacich, Dick Clark and Ron Bohlman, had been purchased by trainer Bullock for $17,000 at the 2022 WTBOA Summer Yearling Sale.

Freightline has placed in each of his four starts. After finishing third the first time out in a mid-June maiden special weight race which he lost by less than a length, he ran second to Oregon-bred Whiskey Harbor in the King County Express Stakes on July 9. Thirteen days later, Freightline returned to annex a five-panel maiden allowance by 1 1/2 lengths.

A field of five went to the gate for the 6 1/2-furlong WTBOA Lads Stakes, which purse had grown to $65,000 after three late supplemental entries. Then unbeaten Whiskey Harbor went off as the even-money favorite, with Bourbon Dancer – who had defeated Freightline in his first outing – at odds of $1.60 to one.

Sent off as the $2.30 to one third choice, Freightline, ridden by Alex Cruz, set the pace and then drew off to defeat Bourbon Dancer by 3 1/4 lengths with Whiskey Harbor in the show spot.

With his $64,940 in earnings, Freightline is the leading earner among the six winners produced out of Knight Raider, who is also the dam of Douglas Fir Futurity (Grants Pass) winner Miss Valor and two-time Turf Paradise stakes-placed Wicked Winnings.

Knight Raider, who won a trio of Emerald Downs stakes during her first season of racing, retired with earnings of $97,399 before being sent to Kentucky to be bred to Yes It's True, with $46,554 earner It's My Knight resulting. Knight Raider's most recent foal, a 2022 filly by Conveyance, was a $17,000 RNA at the August WTBOA Sale.

Knight Raider is a daughter of stakes-placed Knight Weave, who also produced $87,631 stakes winner Knight Club, $88,292 stakes-placed Trump Itz (also by Coast Guard) and stakes-placed Say Say.

Freightline continues to cement his sire, El Dorado Farms' stallion Coast Guard, standings as a top juvenile sire. The Grade 1-placed son of Stormy Atlantic, has sired three Washington champions, two who earned their title at two. Through December 31, Coast Guard ranks first on the Washington juvenile sire list and is second to the late Conveyance on the state's general sire listing.

Half-sister to ENDURING KNIGHT (5 wins at 2 and 3, $163,201, Federal Way H., Irish Day H., Paragon H., Northwest Stallion S.-R, etc.). 7 other foals, 6 starters, 5 winners, including Zillah's Knight (3 wins, $87,626, 2nd Emerald Downs Breeders' Cup Derby).

A field of ten older runners went forward in the mile Luke Kruytbosch Stakes. Washington-breds Perfect Dude and Coastal Kid vied for the lead for the first six furlongs before Perfect Dude drew off in the stretch to take his first stakes race in nearly four years by 4 1/2 lengths. Final race time was a quick 1:34.33.

Perfect Dude holds the distinction of being the first Washington-bred stakes winner of 2023. Last year, the first Washington-bred stakes winner didn't arrive until April 30, when Cacchiotti Ranch's Anthonys Cleopatra won the California Oaks at Golden Gate Fields.

Steve Haahr's Coastal Kid, Washington's 2021 champion three-year-old gelding who was partnered with rider Alex Cruz, held on for second place, one-length better than eight-year-old Kentucky-bred Zestful.

Finishing fourth in the Arizona race was 2019 Gottstein Futurity winner and $216,850 earner Race Home, by Race Day. Two-time Washington champion Unmachable finished seventh.

Perfect Dude, who went off as the $1.90 to one favorite, races for his breeders Todd and Shawn Hansen and is trained by Vann Belvoir. The seven-year-old gelding had finished first or second in his last five starts, including a runner-up finish in the Hank Mills Sr. Stakes in November and a three-length tally in a starter/$25,000 optional claiming race (N) in December, before finishing fourth in the Turf Paradise Turf Stakes. He has not raced since February 11.

At three, the now $152,401 earner had won the Seattle Slew Stakes and placed in both the Auburn and Coca-Cola stakes, all at Emerald Downs.

Perfect Dude is one of two winners produced out of $309,580 stakes winner Gadget Queen, who was also raced by the Hansens. A hard-knocking racemare, Gadget Queen raced 27 times in her six-year campaign with a 10-11-5 record. She won two Emerald Downs stakes and placed in eight other stakes, seven at the same Washington track and also was runner-up in the Campanile Stakes at Golden Gate Fields.

Bred to many top-ranked stallions, Gadget Queen is also the dam of $210,133 earner Huge Bigly, a 2017 Midshipman gelding. While her first two foals were fillies, all of her remaining offspring have been colts. Her second offspring, foaled in 2015, was the Into Mischief filly Gracious Me, who placed in four of her seven starts.

The bay mare produced her final foal in 2022 before being humanely put down in September 2022 due to complications from colic. That colt, by The Factor, is now named I'm a Dude To.

Raced by Padua Stables and trained by Steve Asmussen, Majesticperfection finished his short career with a gate to wire win in the 2010 Grade I Alfred G. Vanderbilt Handicap at Saratoga. He retired to Airdrie Stud in 2011 where he sired Lovey Maria, who scored Grade 1 victories in both the Kentucky Oaks and Ashland Stakes in 2016. He also sired 2020 Derby City Distaff Stakes (G1) winner Bell's the One before being sent to Uruguay in 2018 where his first crop raced in 2021. Majesticperfection was euthanized at age 15 after suffering from laminitis.

Half-sister to Capable Quest (19 wins, $60,612). 11 other foals, 10 starters, 9 winners, including WASSERMAN (13 wins, 3 to 11, $599,091, Washington horse of the year, champion handicap horse, Longacres Mile H.-G3, Governor's H.-twice, FOX Sports Network H., Muckleshoot Tribal Classic S.-R.-twice, etc.). PERFECT FINISH (15 wins, 3 to 7, $163,007, Diane Kem H., Mt Hood S., etc.), Fairly Honest (9 wins, 2 to 7, $f83,602, 2nd Trooper Seven S.-R). Granddam of Yoh Rocko (6 wins, $34,250, 3rd Willamette River S., etc.).

Rimrock Lake is a water body along the course of Yakima County's Tieton River, which is used as a storage reservoir for the Yakima Project, an irrigation project run by the United States Bureau of Reclamation.

It is also the name given to Clemans View Farm's homebred two-year-old. Winner of his first two starts, Rimrock Lake took a maiden $25,000 claiming race by 4 1/2 lengths on July 30, and then came back four weeks later to win the WA Cup Juvenile Colts and Geldings Stakes by 7 1/2 lengths at odds of $5,90 to one. Even-money favorite Knightline, who was trying to break his maiden in the stakes, finished second.

Rimrock Lake finished his juvenile season with a seventh place finish in the Gottstein Futurity.

Rimrock Lake is the second foal and winner produced out of six-race winner Nightwalker. Her first foal, three-year-old Goat Rocks, by Linchpin, scored her maiden victory for Clemans View Racing on June 24 in an Emerald Downs maiden $15,000 claiming race and then added a 4 1/2-length victory in a $25,000 claimer on September 9. Goat Rocks, who has now earned $40,620, was named in honor of the Goat Rocks, which are remnants of a large extinct volcano. Goat Rocks Wilderness is 108,096 acres in the Okanagan—Wenatchee National Forest and Gifford Pinchot National Forest on the crest of the Cascade Range south of US Highway 12.

Nightwalker was bred and trained by Howard Belvoir, who raced the mare in partnership with the late Fred Foy. Four of the wins for the daughter of seven-time leading Washington sire Parker's Storm Cat came at Emerald Downs and the other two at Portland Meadows.

Nightwalker was one of ten winners Washington Racing Hall of Fame trainer Belvoir bred from the stakes-placed Knights Choice mare Share the Knight, who he also owned and trained.

The most successful runner out of top producer was Belvoir's 2008 Washington horse of the year and Longacres Mile (G3) winner Wasserman. The Cahill Road gelding won six Emerald Downs stakes (four at age six) and placed in another 13 stakes at the Auburn oval, earning nearly $600,000.

Belvoir also trains Rimrock Lake, who gave him his 49th Emerald Downs stakes victory.

Share the Knight also produced $163,907 Portland Meadows stakes winner Perfect Finish, by Katowice; $82,601 stakes-placed Fairly Honest, by Basket Weave; and $113,057 earner Perfect Night, by Cahill Road. All told, her offspring won 71 races and earned $1,230,216. Nightwalker was her final foal.

Rimrock Lake is the first stakes winner and second stakes horse from the first 26 foals sired by $492,139 stakes winner Raised a Secret. The now 13-year-old son of Fountain of Youth Stakes (G1) winner Songandaprayer, a son of Unbridled's Song, ran third in the Gottstein Futurity and went on to win or place in six California stakes before retiring at age six while racing for Dr. Rodney Orr. After originally retiring to stud for the 2018 breeding season at Oakhurst Thoroughbreds in Oregon, he later was moved to El Dorado Farms.

Inbred 4 x 3 to Storm Cat, Rimrock Lake's pedigree also features four crosses to Mr. Prospector in his first six generations. The new stakes winner's pedigree also contains other crosses to Mr. Prospector's sire Raise a Native through Exclusive Native, his son Affirmed, and Alydar.

It has been exciting to watch the progress of 2022 WTBOA Sale graduate Ship Cadet. After winning a five-furlong Belmont Park maiden special weight race over the grass by three-quarters of a length in his May 12 debut, the two-year-old colt has run exclusively in stakes races.

On June 11, Ship Cadet ran second to the highly-regarded Speightstown colt Gold Sweep in Belmont's 5 1/2-furlong Tremont Stakes (on the dirt). Yo Yo Candy finished third. While Yo Yo Candy and Gold Sweep would next meet up at Saratoga, where Yo Yo Candy (at 46 to one) would win the Grade 3 Sanford Stakes with Gold Standard second, Ship Cadet's path took him to New Jersey's Monmouth Park and the turf for the five-furlong Tyro Stakes on July 30. Irish-bred No Nay Mets – who had broken his maiden in the Royal Palm Juvenile Stakes at Gulfstream Park in May – won the race, with Ship Cadet finishing second in the 12-horse field.

Ship Cadet was next sent to Saratoga for the 5 1/2-furlong Skidmore Stakes. Originally carded for the grass, it was instead run on a muddy dirt track. Four were scratched from the race, including probable favorite No Nay Mets. Sent off as second betting choice in the field of nine, Ship Cadet won the $150,000 stakes race by 1 1/4 lengths.

Ship Cadet is the 59th stakes winner sired by 2008 Eclipse-winning juvenile Midshipman. The son of Unbridled's Song won both the Breeders' Cup Juvenile (G1) and Del Mar Futurity (G1) at two, He would win his first start at three and then run third in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile (G1). At four, Midshipman would finish his career with a victory in at UAE's Meydan Racecourse. In his eight lifetime starts, Midshipman had a 5-1-1-1 record and career earnings of $1,584,800. He has sired five Grade 1 winners in Brazil and Chile. His 11 crops – including four breeding seasons in South America – have earned a combined figure of nearly $50-million. Ship Cadet is one his eight 2023 stakes winners.

Midshipman stood the 2023 breeding season for a $20,000 fee at Darley in Lexington, Kentucky.

Ship Cadet had been the second highest priced yearling at the 2022 WTBOA Sale, with David Staudacher signing the ticket for $79,000. He is the first foal out of two-time Washington champion Bella Mia. Bred and raced by Terry and Mary Lou Griffin, Bella Mia is a third generation Washington-bred for the Buckley couple.

Back in 1993, the Griffins had purchased Illinois-bred stakes winner Outofthebluebell for $17,000 at the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale. The daughter of Red Ryder – a full brother to Mr. Prospector – was in foal to Time for a Change. As a racemare, Outofthebluebell had won or placed in seven stakes in her home state and earned $195,066. She had produced two foals prior to her purchase by the Griffins, Dona Coquis, a 1991 filly by Fast Play would win eight races in Mexico and place in two stakes; and unplaced Jalwa, a 1992 filly by Northern Jove, who would end up as a broodmare in Ireland.

The foal Outofthebluebell was carrying was the unraced Cinderella Belle. Her next foal, Mr. Bulldog, a 1996 son of leading Washington sire Son of Briartic, would win eight races and earn $124,611.

She next foaled her “foal de resistance” – the uber-talented Rings a Chime.

A 1997 daughter of Metfield, a Grade 3-winning son of Seattle Slew, Rings a Chime was named Washington champion two-year-old filly off her record at two while racing for David and Trish Currie and trainer Lloyd Mason. She won the Bay Meadows Lassie and placed in two other Northern California stakes in their colors.

She opened her sophomore campaign in the colors of Turf Side Stable with trainer Lonnie Arterburn at the helm. After placing in both the Grade 1 Las Virgenes Stakes and Grade 3 Santa Ysabel Stakes at Santa Anita, the dark bay filly was sent to Keeneland where she won the Grade 1

Ashland Stakes and a month later was runner-up in the Kentucky Oaks (G1). Her racing career ended with a last place finish in the Black-Eyed Susan Stakes (G2). She would later produce Alcibiades Stakes (G1) winner Country Star.

The Griffins hung on to Outofthebluebell's 1999 daughter Campanita, a winning daughter of Son of Briartic. She would produce seven winners, including a trio of stakes-placed fillies: Rain Shadow, Bella Campana and Bell Adieu. Bella Campana is the dam of Bella Mia, who won four Emerald Downs stakes and placed in five others before joining the Griffin Place broodmare band.

Barren in 2022, Bella Mia produced a colt by Take Charge Indy last spring and was bred to Straight Fire for 2024.

2nd DAM

ENTER LAUGHING (2000), by Distorted Humor. Winner at 3, $20,760. Half-sister to Amy Leigh ($37,424). 3 other foals, all winners, including LADY ROSBERG (8 wins, $176,272, Washington champion grass horse twice, champion older filly or mare, Emerald Distaff S., Boeing H., Mesa H., etc.; producer). Granddam of RISQUE'S LEGACY (3 wins, $91,526, Washington champion 2-and 3-year-old filly, Kent S., Washington Cup Two-year-old Filly S.-R, etc.).

As they had in 2022, trainer Tom Wenzel and jockey Jose Zunino teamed to win both the Governor's and Washington State Legislature stakes on a Sunday mid-July Emerald Downs card. Slew's Tiz Whiz was a repeat winner, while Code Four Stables' Our Lyla Grace was earning her first black-type in the 2023 stakes for older fillies and mares.

While the 2022 stakes duo (the other successful runner being Dontkissntell) both raced for Darlyne Krieg, the widow of Slew's Tiz Whiz's breeder Karl Krieg, trainer Wenzel and his wife, WTBOA Office Manager Melissa Wenzel, Terry and Mary Lou Griffin, of Griffin Place, Jodee Snyder and longtime Krieg friend Roy Brewer and his wife Tammy Brewer now race Slew's Tiz Whiz under the name of Slew's Crew Racing.

So far under the new partnership, Slew's Tiz Whiz, a five-year-old son of the Rancho San Miguel-based Slew's Tiznow, has run four times. On June 24 he finished second by a length to California invader Bridleuptothebar in the six-panel Budweiser Stakes and on July 23 he defeated that same rival by 1 1/4 lengths in the 6 1/2-furlong Governor's Stakes. Slew's Tiz Whiz would finish third in the 88th running of the Longacres Mile behind winner Five Star General – who had run second or third in his three previous Miles – and California ship-in El Bellator. The consistent Slew's Tiz Whiz would finish out the season with a three-length victory in the Muckleshoot Tribal Classic and be named Emerald Downs horse of the meet for the second year in a row.

On August 13, Slew's Tiz Whiz's three-year-old half-sister I'm a Risque Girl, by Atta Boy Roy, broke her maiden at Del Mar by 3 1/4 lengths in a $100,000 maiden claiming race for the partnership of William A Branch, Gary Brady, Anthony Pomeca, Chris Underwood and trainer Andy Mathis.

Ros's Girl is also the dam of the unraced two-year-old filly My Little Lady, by Danzing Candy, a 2022 Smiling Tiger colt and a 2023 filly by Sir Prancealot (Ire). Both the Danzing Candy filly and the Smiling Tiger colt were sold for $20,000 bids as yearlings through the WTBOA Sales program.

SPECIAL RETURN (2003), by Slewdledo. Unraced. 5 other named foals, 4 starters, 3 winners.

Special Diva is a daughter of $1,306,709 earner Misremembered, one of 18 Grade 1 winners sired by the unbeaten Argentine champion and Pacific Classic Stakes (G1) winner Candy Ride (Arg). Candy Ride has sired eight champions among his 113 stakes winners (55 graded), led by 2017 Horse of the Year and now top sire Gun Runner.

Foaled in 2006, Misremembered was bred and trained by Bob Baffert and raced for his wife Natalie Baffert and George Jacobs. He raced 13 times with six wins (four stakes) and five seconds (all in Grade 2 or Grade 3 races). His most prestigious win came in the Santa Anita Handicap (G1), but he also was victorious in the Grade 2 Swaps Stakes, Grade 2 Indiana Derby and listed Santana Mile Stakes. He retired to stud in 2012 at Barton Thoroughbreds in Santa Ynez, California, where his 2023 stud fee was $2,500.

Special Holiday was bred and initially raced by Billie Klokstad, who also raced her Washington champion granddam Return Call. As a race mare, Special Holiday won the Pink Ribbon Stakes at Stockton and placed two Emerald Downs stakes, earning $135,625.

Special Diva is her fifth foal and fourth winner. Her leading winner is the 2018 Atta Boy Roy gelding Mr. Stang, who has won six races — including a Turf Paradise allowance last January — and earned $127,605. Special Holiday is also the dam of a 2022 Conveyance filly and produced a colt by Coast Guard in 2023.

Special Diva is raced by Jeff and Alisa Cissell of Des Moines, who had purchased the filly for $7,500 at the 2022 WTBOA Summer Sale.

Special Diva, who was co-bred with Special Holiday's former owners Mel and Lori Mellick (Sporting Green Thoroughbreds), is the fourth two-year-old stakes winner that Connie Belshay and her Graham-based Only Me Thoroughbreds has produced since 2015, the others being the half-siblings Squeeze Me and This Great Nation and 2018 Washington champion two-year-old filly Money in the Stars.

At the 2023 WTBOA Sale Belshay sold a Higher Power colt from her latest broodmare acquisition, $499,862 six-time stakes winner and Grade 3-placed Kiss Mine, for $27,000.

Snow Plow

Washington's first Grade 1 stakes winner

by Susan van Dyke

The nearly 17-hand Snow Plow heads to the gate for the Grade 1 Demoiselle Stakes at Aqueduct.

On Halloween 1981 two-year-old Snow Plow became the first Washington-bred Grade 1 stakes winner when she drew away to a 2 1/4-length victory in Laurel Park's $210,835 Selima Stakes over future Eclipse champion Ambassador of Luck. It was only the second start for the daughter of Royal Ski who had earlier taken a maiden special weight race at Belmont.

An Elite Club

Snow Plow followed fellow juvenile fillies, the Grade 2-winning half-sisters Any Time Girl (1976) and Table Hands (1979) as Washington's third graded stakes winner. Grades for prominent stakes races were first put in effect in the US in 1973, patterned after European Group races. The first Washington-bred to place in a newly graded stakes was Rock Bath, who ran third behind *Cougar II and Life Cycle in the July 23, 1973, Grade 1 Sunset Handicap held at the now defunct Hollywood Park.

Just 15 days after her score in the Selima, Snow Plow returned to New York where she took the Grade 1 Demoiselle Stakes, run at Aqueduct, by 1 1/4 lengths over the good filly Larida.

It would only be three years until the next Grade 1-winning Washington-bred. That event happened during the summer meet at Del Mar when the four-year-old filly Flag de Lune won Del Mar's Ramona Handicap on the grass.

Since then, Washington-breds have only won six more races at the top level. Delicate Vine won the 1986 Arlington Washington Lassie Stakes, one of a trio of graded stakes she triumphed in during her meteoric juvenile season. Saratoga Passage took the 1987 Norfolk Stakes at two during the Oak Tree meet at Santa Anita and came back two years later to win the Eddie Read Handicap at Del

Mar, becoming the only statebred to earn Grade 1 status on both the dirt and turf.

In 2000, Rings a Chime won Keeneland's Ashland Stakes for three-year-old fillies, and a year later two-year-old distaffer Tali'sluckybusride was victorious in Oak Leaf Stakes, also at Santa Anita.

Washington's most recent Grade 1 winner happened in 2006 when the four-year-old gelding Pure As Gold won the Bing Crosby Handicap at Del Mar.

All nine runners mentioned, including the two Grade 2-winning half-sisters, were rewarded with Washington horse of the year titles during the year of their graded triumphs.

Building a Broodmare Band

In 1977, Kent businessman Jim H. Plemmons went to Kentucky to supplement his growing broodmare band, all sired by prominent sires of the day. He purchased the 12-year-old Hasty Road mare Mick B Quick, bred to Ward McAllister, from the Cavalier Enterprises consignment for $10,500 at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Fall Mixed Sale. A three-race winner of $21,595, Mick B Quick had already produced four winners, led by Duc De Flanagan, a 1970 son of Chateaugay who had finished third in the Grade 2 Dwyer Handicap at Aqueduct. (After Snow Plow's success, Duc de Flanagan came to Washington where he stood at Dr. Gary and Marie Duskin's Top o' the Ridge Farm in Everett.)

The following year Mick B Quick would foal a colt at Plemmon's farm, which was first named Dan-Ron Farms before later being renamed Plemmonston Stud. That colt, Nelson Bumber, would win a maiden special weight race at Portland Meadows and place in races at Longacres and Turf Paradise.

Mick B Quick's pasture mates included mares by Prince John, *Principeillo, *My Babu, Crafty Admiral, Swaps, *Ambiorix, Your Host and Summer Tan.

Mick B Quick was sent back to Kentucky to be bred to first year stallion Royal Ski, who stood for a $10,000 fee at Murty Farms near Keeneland and in whom Plemmons owned a share. Royal Ski, by upcoming sire Raja Baba, had been an outstanding two-year-old, winning six of his nine starts that season, including the Grade 1 Laurel Futurity and four other stakes. He had the misfortune to come along in the same crop as unbeaten Seattle Slew, but would rank co-second (with Run Dusty Run), one pound behind the future Triple Crown winner on the Experimental Handicap.

Royal Ski's granddam Flaming Page was a Canadian champion and Queen's Plate winner. She was also the dam of European Horse of the Year Nijinsky II and Irish champion Minsky and granddam of European Horse of the Year The Minstrel.

The chestnut filly cruised to a 2 1/2-length victory in Laurel Park's Grade 1 Selima Stakes in only her second start.

Sent to Japan after the 1979 breeding season, Royal Ski also sired Japanese champion and classic winner Agnes Flora and US Grade 1 winner Ski Goggle among his 20 stakes winners. Royal Ski died at age 30 at the Japan Bloodhorse Breeders' Association Nasu Stud Farm in the Tochihi Prefecture.

Unfortunately, Snow Plow proved to be Mick B Quick's final foal, as the mare died of pneumonia in 1980 on the way back from Kentucky after being bred to Bold Commander. (Plemmons was a firm believer in a Bold Ruler x Hasty Road cross.)

Mick B Quick had only produced two other fillies among her nine named foals. Her 1973 daughter Quick Dynasty, by Dynastic, was the dam of nine winners, including Dynasty Doll, a 1979 filly by Within Hail who won five races and ran second in the Niagara Stakes at Finger Lakes. None of Quick Dynasty's daughters would produce anything of note, and the line died out with time, just as it had with Mick B Quick's other daughter Quicky Mick, by Tim Tam.

Mick B Quick's sixth dam, Stagecraft, was the dam of 1938 Santa Anita Handicap winner Stagehand, who as a three-year-old defeated Seabiscuit in the rich race while carrying 30 less pounds. Stagehand would later sire prominent Washington sire Stage Glitter.

Another Washington connection in Snow Plow's female line came through her third dam, Center Stage. The 1942 daughter of *Bull Dog produced two stakes winners, led by her three-time stakes-winning daughter Arab Actress, whose granddaughter T. V. Actress (bred by Theiline Wright Scheumann) foaled two-time Washington champion Loto Canada (bred by Jerre Paxton's Kwik Lok Corporation). Both Scheumann's Grousemont Farm and Paxton (who later changed his farm name to Northwest Farms) are members of the Washington Racing Hall of Fame as breeder inductees. After moving East, T. V. Actress would later foal stakes-placed Miss Actress, Florida stakes winner Crystal Rail and Miss Actress, who would be runner-up in the Gardenia Stakes (G2) at The Meadowlands (and appear later in this tale).

Snow Plow was inbred 4S x 5S to *Nasrullah, 5S x 4D to the great weight carrier Discovery, and 4D x 4D to brothers *Sir Gallahad III and *Bull Dog.

Among the other good Washington-bred stakes winners bred by Plemmons were $128,221 winner Music Queen, by Stop the Music, who also raced in his colors; and Yuma Queen, by Advocate, both foaled in 1980.

Leon "Blu" Blusiewicz

Plemmons, who would later serve on the then-WHBA Board of Directors and also help build the association's addition at the Longacres site, offered the big filly he named Snow Plow (for her antics chasing snowplows during her first winter, as well as a play on her sire's name) at the 1980 Keeneland September Yearling Sale where Maryland breeder, trainer and all-around horseman and gambler Leon Blusiewicz paid $35,000 for the striking chestnut. Blusiewicz later said he would have been willing to put out $50,000 for the Washington-bred yearling. She was the fifth highest-priced yearling among the 11 offered at auction from Royal Ski's first of only two North American crops.

Blusiewicz would contact Plemmons the following spring. According to Plemmons, the trainer was very generous in his appraisal of the filly and said "She was the best runner I've ever trained . . . She has a tremendous stride." The trainer had been hoping to acquire a half-sibling to Snow Plow, or even her dam.

Blusiewicz had been raised in East Baltimore and, before turning to training, had been a stevedore and merchant seaman.

Among those on hand for the Selima trophy presentation were winning trainer Leon "Blu" Blusiewicz and Snow Plow's 16-year-old rider "Cowboy" Jack Kaenel.

In addition to being based in Maryland, Blusiewicz was also a long-time fixture on the New York circuit, especially at Saratoga. According to Equibase records his trainees won 184 races between 1976 and 2017. In addition to Snow Plow he trained Grade 1 winner Willa On the Move and additional graded stakes winners Mighty Magee, Skipat, Millions, Tong Po and Spartiatis (his final stakes winner and runner).

Snow Plow began her race career running in the name of Blusiewicz's wife, Joanne Blusiewicz.

Brilliance in the Selima

Snow Plow's name didn't appear in the entries until October 3, 1981, at Belmont Park, where, with Angel Cordero Jr. aboard, she won a seven-furlong maiden special weight race by a neck at $3.30-to-one odds.

The week before Snow Plow made her stakes debut in the Selima, her trainer had obtained permission from the chief Maryland steward to work the filly between races at Laurel Park on October 24, the date of the Laurel Futurity (G1). Blusiewicz wanted a good, sharp work over the track for Snow Plow, who galloped out a mile in 1:40, just two seconds slower than the time posted for the Futurity.

Supplemented to the Grade 1 Selima Stakes,* which was carded four weeks later, Snow Plow went off as the $8.80-to-one fourth betting choice in the field of six juvenile distaffers. Breaking from post position three, Snow Plow was rated patiently by her 16-year-old rider, "Cowboy" Jack Kaenel, until mid-stretch, when she won "going away" to defeat unbeaten second choice Ambassador of Luck by 2 1/2 lengths. The track surface had been deadened by recent rains and Snow

After taking the Selima Stakes as the fourth betting choice in a field of six, Snow Plow (at $1.80-to-one odds) would draw off to win the nine-furlong Demoiselle Stakes by 1 1/4 lengths over favorite Larida.

Plow's final time of 1:46 2/5 was 4 3/5ths seconds off the Laurel record.

A daughter of What Luck, Ambassador of Luck had won all three of her prior starts – including two stakes – and was ridden by Bill Shoemaker. Also in the race was the previously unbeaten Larida, by Northern Dancer, who was trained by Woody Stephens, and finished fourth as the .three-to-five favorite while ridden by Eddie Maple. All three of the fillies had been supplemented for $7,500 each to the 1 1/16-mile race, which grossed $210,835 and had a $126,501 winner's share.

Ambassador of Luck would go on to win another 11 of her 23 starts, which included nine stakes victories, led by a win in the Grade 1 Maskette Handicap. She was named 1983 Eclipse champion older mare. As a broodmare she produced two stakes winners.

Larida, who would take three graded stakes tallies among her ten wins, later produced English Group 1 winner Magic of Life and $2.6-million Japanese stakes winner Brave Tender.

Chilling Thought, the Icecapade filly who ran third in the Selima, would later win two stakes and be Grade 1-placed.

Standing 16.3 hands with a prominent blaze, Snow Plow's win had not gone unnoticed. After the race, Toledo investment banker Stephen Peskoff leased Snow Plow for a year, through October 1, 1982, with the option to buy a half-interest after that. The filly would next run in Peskoff's green and blue silks.

**Snow Plow raced during a time when the Laurel Futurity (est. 1921) and Selima Stakes (est. 1926) were two of the richest two-year-old stakes of the year due in large part to a lengthy four-part nomination process that began as May foals at side or January yearlings. Neither race is graded today.*

Make That Two Grade Ones

Blusiewicz stated soon after Snow Plow's Selima victory that the November 15 Demoiselle Stakes (G1) at Aqueduct was the next race on her dance card. Most everyone, including Blusiewicz, had already conceded the juvenile filly championship to Calumet Farm's Before Dawn, a three-time Grade 1 winner who had also run second to Timely Writer in the Futurity Stakes (G1).

A field of eight contested the $75,000 Demoiselle Stakes at nine furlongs. With Cordero astride, Snow Plow – carrying 121 pounds – went off as the nine-to-five second choice behind the three-to-two entry of Stephens-trained Larida (carrying 114) and Michelle Mon Amour.

Outsider Miss Actress (see previous mention) took the lead and held strong until the top of the stretch when Larida briefly overtook the front spot, but then it was all Snow Plow, who drew off for a 1 1/4-length victory, be it in a pedestrian time of 1:53, six seconds over the track record in the 60th running of the nine-furlong stakes. Cordero

Leon "Blu" Blusiewicz

Leon "Blu" Blusiewicz, Snow Plow's charismatic and enthusiastic trainer, passed away on November 26, 2023, in Maryland at age 92. Besides being a successful trainer, the outspoken Baltimore native was known as a "Grade 1-caliber backstretch storyteller" and as an "avid student of pedigrees." His first horse racing memory came at age seven, as he was among the throngs that witnessed Seabiscuit's victory over War Admiral in the famous 1938 match race. ■ had also won the previous year's edition of the race aboard Canadian champion Rainbow Connection.

Per planning, it was the Washington-bred's final race of the year.

Other previous winners of the then-important stakes included the fellow late-developing Chris Evert (1973), Caesar's Wish (1977) and future Kentucky Derby winner Genuine Risk (1979).

On the Experimental

On the year-end national Experimental Free Handicap, Snow Plow was weighted at 118 pounds, with only champion Before Dawn (120) and Header Card (119) rated higher.

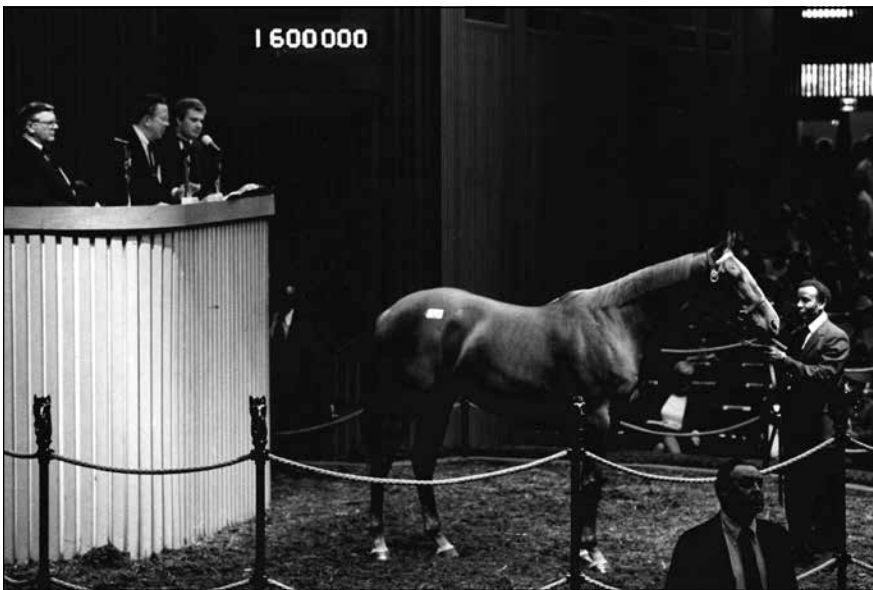

On the Washington Experimental Handicap, which was rated by state Hall of Fame trainer and Longacres racing secretary Glen Williams, Snow Plow was given the 125-pound highweight with future Washington three-year-old champion filly Belle of Rainier at 122 pounds. Not counting the three-pound sex allowance, the highest-ranked male runner that year was two-time California stakes winner Sir Mercenary with 121 and following right behind him were Washington champion juvenile male and future Longacres Derby (G3) winner Flying Judgement and future Eclipse Award-winning sprinter and multiple Washington champion Chinook Pass at 120. With the three-pound sex allowance, Snow Plow was the highest-rated Washington-bred juvenile on the list for 15 years (information listed in 1982 Washington Horse Annual Review).

The 1982 Campaign

Snow Plow's sophomore campaign began in the Oaklawn Park's $50,000 Magnolia Stakes on March 12. She finished third behind Jasmine Jule and Ambassador of Luck in the six-panel race. In her next three starts Snow Plow finished fourth behind Charlie Whittingham-trained Flying Partner in the Grade 1 Fantasy Stakes, then fifth in the Grade 2 Ashland Stakes and fourth in the Grade 1 Kentucky Oaks behind D. Wayne Lukas trainee Blush With Pride. (Blusiewicz would return to Keeneland in 1988 where he would win the now Grade 1 Ashland with Willa On the Move.)

After a tenth place finish behind winner Cupecoy's Joy in the Grade 1 Mother Goose Stakes on June 4, Snow Plow was given six months off. She next ran fifth in the December 18 Busher Handicap at Aqueduct and finished her three-year-old campaign with an allowance victory at The Meadowlands on December 30.

1981 juvenile champion filly Before Dawn would finish second in the Kentucky Oaks and third in the Fantasy Stakes. The 1982 Eclipse Award for three-year-old fillies would be given to Christmas Past, who won five graded stakes (two Grade 1s) and finished third against older male runners in The Jockey Club Gold Cup (G1).

In 1983 Snow Plow was offered, in foal to Horse of the Year Conquistador Cielo, at the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale where Nelson Bunker Hunt purchased her for $1.6-million. The resulting colt, Conquer, won the then ungraded, but now Grade 1, Churchill Downs Handicap in 1988.

Westward Bound

Less than a month after her late December outing, Snow Plow, with Bill Shoemaker in the irons, appeared at Santa Anita where she finished eleventh and last to Avigation in the Grade 1 La Canada Stakes. After two allowance starts at the Arcadia track in February, where she finished fifth and sixth, Snow Plow was sent back to Maryland where she made what was to be her final start on March 5, finishing eleventh in Grade 3 Barbara Fritchie Handicap won by Stellarette.

In her three seasons of racing, Snow Plow made 14 starts over nine different tracks with a 4-0-1 record, $234,495 in earnings and a 16.79 Standards Starts Index. Her SSI after her juvenile season alone was 61.44.

This is the second highest juvenile SSI among other brilliant Washington-bred juvenile champions just behind Delicate Vine's 61.81 (1986) and above such early talent as Table Hand's 55.68 (1979), Saratoga Passage's 37.45 (1987), Any Time Girl's 29.76 (1976), Hilco Scamper's 29.11 (1985), Tali'sluckubusride 24.10 (2001) and Knights Choice's 20.16 (1978).

Broodmare Record

In 1983, Snow Plow was consigned by Echo Valley Horse Farm, agent, to the Keeneland November Mixed Sale. Bred to the recently retired Horse of the Year Conquistador Cielo, she was sold on a bid of $1.6-million to Ted Curtin, agent. It was the co-13th highest price of the sale, which was led by the $5,360,000 paid for stakes winner Producer bred to Northern Dancer.

Curtin purchased 16 other horses at the sale for only $194,000 more than what he had to give for Snow Plow alone (total sale purchases $1,794,000).

Bred by Nelson Bunker Hunt and trained by D. Wayne Lukas, Snow Plow's first foal Conquer won the Churchill Downs Handicap and placed in stakes at Keeneland and Monmouth and Laurel parks. All told, Conquer won nine of his 39 starts and earned $284,705.

Snow Plow's second foal was French race winner Lynow, a 1986 filly by Lyphard, who ended up having one foal, the Japanese gelding S. K. Kaiser, by Par Flite, who won five races and earned $561,036.

Snow Plow's third and final foal was the 1986 Green Dancer colt Nursery Slope. A $140,000 1988 Nelson Bunker Hunt Dispersal Sale two-year-old, Nursery Slope won one of five starts in France and earned $16,108.

Old Frankfort Stud

Jim Plemmons, who had been introduced to horses through his children, moved his horse operation to Old Frankfort Pike outside of Lexington, Kentucky, in 1983. When the 220-acre farm was sold to a partnership headed by Irish bloodstock agent Brendan Gallagher. Plemmons relocated his stud and breeding farm to 600 acres in Woodford County where he kept the farm name of Old Frankfort Stud. Among the stallions he stood were 1992 Kentucky Derby (G1) winner Lil E. Tee, Arkansas Derby (G2) winner Rockamundo, three-time stakes winner Rod and Staff, and Lil E. Tee's two-time grade-winning and Grade 1-placed son Mula Gula, who Plemmons bred and was raced by Washingtonian Steve Gula.

Snow Plow was inducted into the Washington Racing Hall of Fame in 2019. ■

At the Track

Emerald Downs Announces 2024 Race Dates

The live racing dates for Emerald Downs' 29th season were approved by the Washington Horse Racing Commission at their November meeting. The live meet will begin on Saturday, May 4 and end on Sunday, September 15 and will offer three additional dates than the last two seasons at the Auburn track. The meet will feature the 89th running of the Longacres Mile.

The Saturday opening day, May 4, coincides with the 150th running of the Kentucky Derby (G1), with post time 1:30 p.m. In fact, all weekend post times have been moved up a half-hour to 1:30 p.m. for 2024.

The 55-day meeting is composed of 20 Saturdays, 19 Sundays, 15 Fridays and one Wednesday. Friday racing begins May 31, with a 7 p.m. post time.

The annual Fireworks Spectacular is Wednesday, July 3, with a special 5 p.m. post.

California Tracks Cut Purses

The final Golden Gate Fields meeting in Albany, California, opened on Monday, December 26 and will run through Sunday, June 9, 2024. The overnight purses will potentially be cut by 25 percent, due to a longstanding $3.1-million overpayment of the purse account.

The Santa Anita Park winter/spring meet, which is also opened December 26, will have a purse reduction of around five percent. Two-million dollars is scheduled to be eliminated from the Santa Anita stakes schedule.

Former Leading Emerald Downs Trainer Jeffrey Metz Named Santa Anita Stall Superintendent

In late September it was reported in the Daily Racing Form (DRF) that former leading Emerald Downs trainer Jeffrey Metz has retired from training duties to become Santa Anita Park's new stall superintendent.

"It was my plan to stay close to California and this came open suddenly. It happened fast," Metz told the DRF. "It looks like a good opportunity, knowing all the players between management and horsemen on the backstretch."

Metz, who retires with a 918-886-903 record from 6,734 starts and with just shy of $11-million in total earnings, was the leading trainer at Emerald Downs in 2013 (42 wins), 2015 (66 wins) and 2018 (43 wins). He had a total of 333 victories at the Auburn track, including 11 in 2023. On April 12, 2014, he saddled five winners from eight starters (with two seconds), becoming one of but a handful of trainers who have accomplished the feat at the Washington oval. His trainees won a dozen Emerald stakes and among his best runners were Washington champions E Z Kitty, Citizen Kitty, Kaabraaj and Coastal Kid. He also trained stakes winners B C Z Middleton and Tiz a Macho Girl.

Metz had also been one of the top conditioners at the Phoenix-based Turf Paradise.

2024 Turf Paradise Meet Scheduled to Begin January 29

It was announced after an emergency Arizona HBPA meeting on November 29, that pending permission from the Arizona Racing Commission, TurfParadise will open for training on December 26 for a January 29 through May 4 meeting. Stall applications will be available as soon as possible after date approval.

Hall of Fame Jockey Gary Boulanger Retires

Gary Boulanger, who was elected to the Washington Racing Hall of Fame in 2015 and the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame in 2020, has retired from the saddle. His last ride came at Fort Erie on September 12.

Born in Drayton Valley, Alberta, on November 19, 1967, his first win came at Grande Prairie.

Boulanger was the leading rider at Longacres for three seasons (1989-91) and holds the record for most meet wins with 247 at the former Renton track (1991). He was aboard 642 winners at Longacres, ranking him sixth all-time. Among those wins were 30 stakes victories and he was the only jockey in track history to win six races on a card on three different occasions. Among his stakes winners at the Renton oval were state champions Peterhof's Patea (six Longacres stakes wins), Chalk Box, Money by Choice and Crystal Run.

After being seriously injured in 2005, Boulanger didn't return to race riding until 2013. In a career that began in 1987, Boulanger had 3,685 victories and his mounts earned $83,543,336. His most important win came with the filly Dancethru the dawn, who he was aboard for her victories in the 2001 Queen's Plate and Woodbine Oaks.

2022 Oregon Champions

2022 Oregon champions were announced at Grants Pass Downs on October 1.

Horse of the year and champion three-year-old filly honors went to Enchanting Way, a daughter of Harbor the Gold—Kenzie's Angel, by Grindstone, bred by Lisa Baze and Rigoberto Velasquez.

Enchanting Angel is the only foal out of the Grindstone mare Kenzie's Angel, who was named broodmare of the year.

Baze was named both breeder of the year and was chosen as Oregon's TOBA winner.

The top two-year-old male runner was Charlene Roberts' homebred Saxon Saga, a gelded son of Slew's Saga—Tu Tu Stone, by Grindstone. He was bred under her CTR Broodmares LLC.

The three-year-old male title was given to General Thayer, a gelding by Giacomo—Pala Blanca, by Modigliani, bred by Pinot Noir Stable.

Skeesix was named 2022 Oregon champion older male. The 2014 gelding by Sixthirteen—See Sea Lady, by Personage, races for Cindy Mendive and was bred by Mendive and Barbara Roberts.

Older mare honors went to Bengal Tiger, the fourth Oregon champion sired by California millionaire Smiling Tiger. Bred by Dr. Rodney Orr, she is a 2018 daughter of Miss Floriello, by Conquistador Cielo.

Bar C Racing Stables' late Harbor the Gold earned his 14th consecutive title as the state's top sire.

No juvenile filly or trainer titles were awarded for 2022.

Help Strengthen Legislative Support for the Washington Racing Industry

A new Washington State legislative session began on January 8. It is important for our industry to be able to quantify the number of people employed.

Please contact Lanna Allen at the WHBPA at (253) 804-6822 or contactus@whbpa.com if you work or employ people in jobs related to the Thoroughbred industry in Washington, especially if the jobs are on breeding or boarding farms or training centers.
